

APOM Fellow Dr. Elizabeth Pedigo awarded OHSU Golden ROSE

Elizabeth Pedigo, M.D., a pediatric fellow in the Department of Anesthesiology and Perioperative Medicine (APOM), was honored with a Golden ROSE (Recognizing Outstanding Service Excellence) Award in December by the OHSU Service Excellence Reward and Recognition Committee. Dr. Pedigo was nominated by Joyce Hartje, R.N., for her work in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit.

To read the nomination, visit www.ohsu.edu/xd/health/who-we-are/quality-service/staff-recognition/upload/PEDIGO-O-zone-4.pdf.

Award recipients are selected for service that “goes well beyond the scope of their job” and represents one or more of OHSU’s five categories or “Pillars” of service excellence (People, Service, Quality, Finance and Growth).

Dr. Pedigo completed her residency in anesthesiology at Virginia Commonwealth University Health Systems. She is a graduate of the Virginia Commonwealth University School of Medicine and has a bachelor’s degree from James Madison University.
