4:30 p.m.	Reception and Appetizers
5:15 - 5:25 p.m.	Welcome and Introductory Remarks
5:30 - 6:00 p.m.	Objects and their locations in exogenous attentional orienting Krista L. Schendel, Lynn C. Robertson, & Anne Treisman Center for Neuroscience & Veterans Administration, U.C. Davis, and Princeton University
6:10 - 6:40 p.m.	Processing from Unattended Visual Locations David Diller, Richard Shiffrin, Asher Cohen
6:50 - 7:20 p.m.	Attentional modulation of priming effects: The relation between Object specific preview benefits and negative priming Bruce Milliken and Karmen Bleile, McMaster University
7:30 p.m.	Adjourn For Evening

Friday Morning Session, July 24

8:30 a.m.	Morning Refreshments
9:00 - 9:30 a.m.	Sense of direction and route reversal performance Edward H. Cornell, C. Donald Heth, & Tonya L. Flood, University of Alberta
9:40 - 10:10	Recollection and familiarity deficits in a.m.	amnesia: Convergence of remember/know, process dissociation, and ROC data Andrew Yonelinas, University of California Davis

10:20 - 10:50 a.m.	False memories and criterion shift George Wolford and Michael Miller, Dartmouth College
11:00 a.m.	Break until 5:00 p.m.

Friday Evening Session, July 24

5:00 p.m.	Poster Session and Appetizers
	Under what conditions does aging affect stroop interference? Peggy Christidis, Claremont Graduate University, and Deborah Burke, Pomona College, Claremont
	Costs of a predictable switch between cognitive tasks in young and healthy older adults M.P. Sullivan, Oregon Health Sciences University and Y. Choe, Reed College
5:30 - 6:00 p.m.	The perception of cross-modal simultaneity (or "The Greenwich Observatory problem revisited") Daniel J. Levitin, Ph.D., Interval Research Corp. and Stanford University
6:10 - 6:40 p.m.	Building a visual representation over time Anne Treisman and Xuexin Zhang. Princeton University

	Neuroscience and Veterans Administration, UC Davis
7:30 p.m.	Adjourn For Evening

Saturday Morning Session, July 25

8:30 a.m.	Morning Refreshments
9:00 - 9:30 a.m.	Depth and distance cues in guiding spatial attention Lynn C. Robertson, Min-Shik Kim and Lisa Barnes, Center for Neuroscience and Veterans Administration, UC Davis
9:40 - 10:10 a.m.	A spotlight in the shadows: Visual search and lightness constancy Cathleen M. Moore & Liana E. Brown, Pennsylvania State University
10:20 - 10:50 a.m.	Automatic capture of attention or voluntary direction of attention with different types of precues MaryLou Cheal, Arizona State University, and Garvin Chastain, Boise State University
11:00 a.m.	Break until 5:00 p.m.

Saturday Evening Session, July 25

5:00 p.m.	Poster Session and Appetizers
	The Moses and Armstrong illusions: Implications for language comprehension and the structure of semantic memory M. Shafto, & Donald G. MacKay, UCLA
	Covert attention and semantic activation in Alzheimer's Disease Karen M. Duncan, Regina McGlinchey, William Milberg, GRECC, Department of Veterans Affairs

	Medical Center
5:30 - 6:00 p.m.	The effects of target and distractor familiarity on search efficiency Jiye Shen and Eyal M. Reingold, University of Toronto
6:10 - 6:40 p.m.	Re-examination of the phonological effect in Chinese visual lexical access Ovid J. L. Tzeng, Daisy L. Hung, Denise H. Wu, Wen Jui Kuo, National Yang Ming University, Taipei, Taiwan And Ignatius Mattingly Haskins Laboratories, New Haven
6:50 - 7:20 p.m.	H.M. revisited: How semantic binding processes in the hippocampal system relate to language comprehension and production Don MacKay, UCLA
7:30 p.m.	Adjourn For Evening

Sunday Morning Session, July 26

8:30 a.m.	Morning Refreshments
9:00 - 9:30 a.m.	The role of inattention in everyday concept learning: Identification in the service of use Lee R. Brooks and Timothy J. Wood, McMaster University
9:40 - 10:10 a.m.	Evidence for an impaired ability to determine semantic relations in Alzheimer's Disease patients Kevin M. Sailor, Lehman College Of Cuny, Teresa Griesing, New York University Medical Center, & Annmarie Bramwell, University Of Miami
10:20 - 10:50 a.m.	Symposium on Music and Cognition
	Don't change a hair for me: The art of jazz rubato

	Richard Ashley, Northwestern University
11:00 a.m.	Break until 5:00 p.m.

Sunday Morning Session, July 26

5:00 p.m.	Poster Session and Appetizers
	Intact priming of featural and spatial information in hemispatial neglect Michael Esterman, Regina McGlinchey, and William Milberg GRECC, Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center
5:30 - 6:00 p.m.	Psychological constraints on musical structures Glenn Schellenberg, Dalhousie University
6:10 - 6:40 p.m.	The role of covert speech in auditory imagery Daniel Reisberg, Reed College
6:50 - 7:20 p.m.	Pitch and duration in melodies: Illusory conjunctions in short-term memory William Forde Thompson, Atkinson College, York University
7:30 p.m.	Adjourn For Evening: Banquet at Pasquale's Restaurant

Monday Morning Session, July 27

8:30 a.m.	Morning Refreshments
9:00 - 9:30 a.m.	A gated poisson capacitor model of simple reaction time and force production J. Toby Mordkoff & Marc Grosjean
9:40 - 10:10 a.m.	The effect of response modality on dual-task interference across practice Mark Van Selst, San Jose State University
10:20 - 10:50 a.m.	Understanding the attentional blink phenomenon: Converging evidence from the psychological refractory period paradigm

	Pierre Jolicoeur and Jacqui Crebolder University of Waterloo
11:00 a.m.	Have a safe trip home!
