

| Components of the General Internal Medicine Fellowship Curriculum | | | | |
|---|--|---|--|---|
| | Research | Teaching | Service (Clinical and Administration) | |
| Formal Courses | HIP or MPH or MCR Program* Human Subjects Compliance Training* EBM Faculty Course* Additional specific courses in research | Curriculum Development Course* Stanford Faculty Development Course* Educator's Curriculum* HIP education Classes PSU Education Courses | PSU MBA/MHA courses ACP Leadership Program HIP management classes | |
| Experiential Learning | Scholarly Project(s)* | Co-precepting in the OHSU clinic*PCM teaching/co-teaching Co-attending on the OHSU or VA wards Ambulatory Curriculum Packet preparation (mentoring a resident)* PCM teaching/co-teaching Co-lead the social medicine curriculum | OHSU ward attending Clinic at Central City Concern (PCP) OHSU Clinic (PCP) Peer review of articles (from mentors)* Ambulatory RAC* Other committee or board in hospital or clinic | Clinical commitment* options include: OHSU clinic OHSU ward attending Central City Concern clinic |
| Informal Conferences | Monthly Fellowship Director Meetings* Monthly Mentor Meetings* RIP* Journal Clubs HIP Buffet Selected OHSU faculty development workshops sponsored by OCTRI and the Research Development Office | Core Preceptor Meetings | Grand Rounds | |
| Regional or National Meetings | SGIM Regional Meeting* SGIM National Meeting* Other national meetings specific to area of interest | SGIM Regional Meeting SGIM National Meeting | ACP Annual Meeting Other CME conference | |