

OREGON HEALTH SCIENCES UNIVERSITY
Historical Collections & Archives

Cliff Morris Collection
Accession No. 1998-006

Guide

Organizational/Biographical Information

Cliff Morris was born June 4, 1918. He joined the 46th General Hospital in 1942 after receiving medic training at the University of Oregon Medical School. He was transferred to Fort Riley, Kansas, for basic training where he worked in medical records, admissions and dispositions. Morris also served at the University of Nebraska in the Army Specialized Training Program and in the 97th Battalion as chief medical corpsman in Europe. He was discharged in 1945 and returned to Portland to work in the family-owned business.

Content, Scope and Arrangement

Photographs: 2 (1942) of military men identified as me (Cliff Morris), Krax and Devlin. Newspaper articles: Newspaper photograph, "Destination Unknown"; 2 newspaper articles, "Army Enlistments"; "Base Hospital Unit Happy As It Starts Off To War"; 3 photocopies of same articles and photographs. Rosters: 30th and 40th reunion rosters of the 46th Base Hospital members.

Related Materials

Oral history interview with Cliff Morris
Base Hospital 46 Collection Accession #2004-026

Quantity

1 folder

Linear Feet

Provenance

The collection was created and/or collected by Cliff Morris. The OHSU Special Collections staff processed the materials in 1998. No other details were known at the time of processing.