Diverse Visiting Student Experience In Pediatrics

OHSU is dedicated to being an organization diverse in people and ideas. We recognize the importance of a diverse workforce to maximize our potential for quality patient care, educational excellence, creativity, innovation, and outstanding service. In support of our commitment to recruit trainees who reflect the population we serve, the OHSU Pediatric Residency Program is delighted to offer a funded visiting rotation experience to medical students from diverse backgrounds.

Program Benefits

- A 4-week visiting rotation at Doernbecher Children's Hospital
- A $3,000 stipend for travel, housing, and application expenses
- An assigned faculty mentor
- A resident or fellow near-peer mentor
- A personal meeting with the Residency Program Director
- An offer to interview for a position in our pediatric residency program

About Doernbecher Children's Hospital

Doernbecher is a tertiary care children's hospital that serves as the primary referral for Oregon and Southwest Washington, and parts of Idaho, Alaska, and Northern California. We are consistently ranked the top children's hospital in Oregon, with seven specialties ranking in the top 50 nationally; we hold a magnet designation by the ANCC (American Nurses Credentialing Center) ensuring the best patient outcomes are delivered with a collaborative, interprofessional team of experts; and have been verified as a Level 1 Pediatric Trauma Center and Surgery Site.

How to Apply
