Summer 2014

Plenty to Celebrate at 2014 Guild Luncheon

- Record number of current Guild members (nearly 800!)
- The Knight Cancer Challenge is now over $418 million, including a $200 million commitment from the State of Oregon
- New Collaborative Life Sciences Building opened; this brings OHSU, Portland State University and Oregon State University together under one roof and provides a new home for the OHSU School of Dentistry
- More money than ever was raised in 2013-14 across all non-cancer areas of OHSU

Due to increased Guild membership and luncheon attendance, the event was moved from the Waverley Country Club to the Multnomah Athletic Club this year.

Joe Robertson Jr., M.D., M.B.A., OHSU President and Sam Jackson Guild member, updated guests on an amazing year made possible by “passionate and visionary supporters of OHSU,” including his fellow members of the Sam Jackson Guild and the Frank Doernbecher Guild. “Philanthropy drives programmatic excellence at OHSU. Legacy giving is particularly critical to our future. We could not do what we do without you,” Robertson said.

Sancy Leachman, M.D., Ph.D., Chair, OHSU Department of Dermatology, and Director, Melanoma Research Program, OHSU Knight Cancer Institute, shared with Guild Luncheon attendees her excitement about the “dream team” of collaborators at OHSU.

Meet Phil and Penny Knight’s Challenge Through a Revocable Gift Notification

Perhaps you have already completed your estate plans and have included a gift to defeat cancer through the Knight Cancer Institute at OHSU. Now, you can make those provisions count in meeting Phil and Penny Knight’s challenge to raise $500 million in two years by completing a Revocable Gift Notification form.

A Revocable Gift Notification is a simple form in which you share the provisions of your estate plans with OHSU Foundation. It is not a pledge nor is it a binding obligation. It is simply a signed informational document.

In accordance with CASE (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) standards and with the approval of Phil and Penny Knight, we will count your generous plan toward the Knight goal.

Please call Ann Barden (503 412-6355), Mike Macnab (503 552-0702), Erica Nystrom (503 220-8318) or Pete Sommerfeld (503-220-8328) to request a Revocable Gift Notification form.

Marjory Bennett Fischer (center), 97, attended the Guild Luncheon with her daughter, Meredith Bach, and her son, Scott Fischer. A grateful Doernbecher patient back in 1928, Marjory has been a Frank Doernbecher Guild member since 2003.
