A. REFLECT A POSITIVE APPROACH TO PERSONS WITH DISABILITIES

In all correspondence and publications:

(1) Avoid the use of stereotypes and negative labels such as "victim," "afflicted," "crippled" and "handicapped" except as such terms are required by statute or federal law and/or regulation.

(2) Use positive terminology such as, "person with disabilities" instead of "disabled person," "handicapped" or other negative words except as such terms as required by statute, or federal law and/or regulation.

(3) Develop and seek input regarding positive terminology and portrayal of persons with disabilities from persons who have disabilities and their advocates.

(4) Foster corrective measures and avoid stereotypes and negative labeling in texts used by schools, newspapers, magazines, radio and television by encouraging review and analysis of these media by publishers, company owners or appropriate agencies.

B. REASONABLE ACCOMMODATION FOR INDIVIDUALS WITH DISABILITIES

Any employee who has a physical or mental disability that substantially limits an individual's ability to perform the job is encouraged to advise his or her supervisor, Human Resources, or OHSU's Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity (AAEO) Department regarding the disability, the work limitations covered by the disability, and any suggested reasonable accommodations.
