

Collaborative Life Sciences Building

OHSU's newest destination, at SW Moody Ave & Meade St, is a unique and exciting transportation hub accessible by a range of travel modes.

In 2015, a new transit bridge, Tilikum Crossing, will connect South Waterfront and Southeast Portland via light rail, a bike path and sidewalks.

South Waterfront Campus

South Waterfront is an emerging clinical and academic sector including the Collaborative Building, the Center for Health & Healing and other OHSU facilities. It is also the a gateway to OHSU's central campus on Marquam Hill, via the Portland Aerial Tram.

4 blocks south of Moody & Meade, SW Moody Ave & SW Gibbs St is host to an aerial tram, pedestrian bridge, streetcar, bike valet, cycle track, shuttles, shipyard, and a traditional street. Together, OHSU facilities at South Waterfront are home to the most diverse transportation facilities in the nation.
