

LATINO AMERICANS

To commemorate Hispanic Heritage Month, OHSU's Latinos Unidos Organization and the Center for Diversity and Inclusion invite the community to free screenings of the acclaimed PBS documentary Latino Americans, highlighting the 500-year legacy that shaped a nation.

Latino Americans, the first major made-for-television documentary series about Latin Americans, chronicles the rich and varied history and experiences of Latinos in the United States. As the largest minority group in the country, Latinos are more than 50 million strong. The changing context of American history provides a compelling backdrop to the story of immigration and redemption, of anguish and celebration, and the gradual construction of a new American identity.

Join us with your brown bag lunch at 12pm at Richard Jones Hall 4320 on the following dates for a one-hour screening of each of the six episodes of Latino Americans.
