WELCOME

OHSU’s Center for Diversity and Inclusion created this guide as part of our warm welcome to everyone within OHSU’s diverse community of students, staff and faculty.

We hope you’ll use it to build relationships, connect with new people, organizations and networks, and explore the places that make the Portland-area and Oregon special.

If you’re new to Portland or the OHSU community, the guide will help you get your bearings, connect with a diverse array of resources, and discover the many services and opportunities available throughout the area. If you’re already familiar with Portland or OHSU, chances are you’ll discover new places to visit, networks to link to and services to meet your needs.

We invite you to visit the Center for Diversity and Inclusion and take advantage of the many resources we offer.

Welcome to the OHSU community!

Leslie D. Garcia, M.A., Vice Provost and Assistant Chief Diversity Officer, and Director, Center for Diversity & Inclusion; and Dr. Norwood Knight-Richardson, M.D., M.A., M.B.A., OHSU Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Diversity Officer

DIVERSITY AT OHSU

Diversity at OHSU requires creating and sustaining a community of inclusion. We honor, respect, embrace and value the unique contributions and perspectives of all employees, patients, students, volunteers and our local and global communities.

Diversity includes age, culture, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, color, religion, sexual orientation, diversity of thought, ideas and more.

Diversity maximizes our true potential for creativity, innovation, quality patient care, educational excellence and outstanding service.
The Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU) Center for Diversity & Inclusion leads and supports university-wide initiatives to create an environment of respect and inclusion for all people. At OHSU, we believe diversity means creating a community of inclusion. CDI is dedicated to fostering partnerships to enhance OHSU’s mission of healing, teaching, research and community services. Offering a range of resources and services, CDI is committed to supporting an environment where students, staff and faculty from socially and economically disadvantaged and historically disadvantaged populations can thrive and maximize their potential for creativity, innovation, and educational excellence.

WHAT WE DO: PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Consultation
CDI serves as a resource hub for the OHSU community on matters related to diversity and inclusion across campus. We help navigate policies, develop communication tools and materials, offer diversity best practices in teaching and learning, and connect you with community resources.

Diversity and Inclusion Events
Social gatherings to celebrate OHSU coming together for networking and community outreach.

Cultural Competency Lecture Series
CDI brings diverse speakers who address a wide range of issues related to culture, race, gender, sexual orientation, social class and economic situation, and their congruence with health disparities and access to care.

Employee Resource Groups
An employee resource group is an OHSU-sponsored, employee-managed group of people from an underrepresented background and their allies, to create opportunities for career development, social support, networking, and community participation.

Diversity Advisory Council *
Comprised of staff, faculty and student representatives from all the university’s mission areas, the Diversity Advisory Council (DAC) advises OHSU’s president and leadership team on enhancing diversity, cultural competency and opportunity throughout the university.

Student Access
We offer consultation and support to help students increase their academic success by enhancing study skill strategies, test-taking, time management and organization methods. Students with disabilities receive reasonable academic accommodations that allow equal access to programs and coursework.

Student Pipeline Programs
Summer Research Internship
OHSU’s Summer Equity Research Program offers a paid internship opportunity for undergraduate students receive career mentoring and shadowing opportunities from OHSU faculty members during the summer.

Health & Science Conference
OHSU hosts an annual conference for high school and college students who want to pursue a career in health sciences. CDI brings more than 400 students from diverse backgrounds to hear student and faculty panels on fields of study and career paths in health care and research.

Hands-On Research Experience
The Ted R. Lilley Cancer Continuing Umbrella of Research Education (CURE) Project is supported by CDI and the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute. The program targets high school students to provide hands-on research experience and science exposure to increase participation of historically underserved and disadvantaged students in biomedical research and health-related fields.

* Both the DAC and PAC are co-led by CDI and OHSU’s Office of Affirmative Action & Equal Opportunity.

El Grito
El Grito, or “the Cry”, represents one of the most iconic Mexican civic celebrations. It recalls the moment in which father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, a parish priest in the village of Dolores ringed the bell of the parish on the morning of September 16th 1810 and called Mexicans to rise against the Spanish crown and fight for Independence. Mexico’s birthday celebration is an effort to inspire all and is the perfect occasion for a big “fiesta.”
