WELCOME

OHSU's Center for Diversity and Inclusion created this guide as part of our warm welcome to everyone within OHSU's diverse community of students, staff and faculty.

We hope you'll use it to build relationships, connect with new people, organizations and networks, and explore the places that make the Portland-area and Oregon special.

If you're new to Portland or the OHSU community, the guide will help you get your bearings, connect with a diverse array of resources, and discover the many services and opportunities available throughout the area. If you're already familiar with Portland or OHSU, chances are you'll discover new places to visit, networks to link to and services to meet your needs.

We invite you to visit the Center for Diversity and Inclusion and take advantage of the many resources we offer.

Welcome to the OHSU community!

Leslie D. Garcia, M.A., Vice Provost and Assistant Chief Diversity Officer, and Director, Center for Diversity & Inclusion; and Dr. Norwood Knight-Richardson, M.D., M.A., M.B.A., OHSU Vice President, Chief Administrative Officer and Chief Diversity Officer

DIVERSITY AT OHSU

At OHSU, we embrace the full spectrum of diversity, including age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, gender identity or expression, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status. We respect and support diversity of thought, ideas and more.

COMMITMENT TO INCLUSION

To fully leverage the richness of our diversity at OHSU, we must create, maintain and promote a community of inclusion. Inclusion means we honor, respect, embrace and value the unique contributions and perspectives of all employees, patients, students, volunteers and our local and global communities. It also includes removing barriers to individual success.

OHSU Equal Opportunity Policy No. 03-05-030

CENTER FOR DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

The Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU) Center for Diversity & Inclusion leads and supports university-wide initiatives to create an environment of respect and inclusion for all people. At OHSU, we believe diversity means creating a community of inclusion. CDI is dedicated to fostering partnerships to enhance OHSU's mission of healing, teaching, research and community services. Offering a range of resources and services, CDI is committed to supporting an environment where students, staff and faculty from socially and economically disadvantaged and historically disadvantaged populations can thrive and maximize their potential for creativity, innovation, and educational excellence.

WHAT WE DO: PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Consultation

CDI serves as a resource hub for the OHSU community on matters related to diversity and inclusion across campus. We help navigate policies, develop communication tools and materials, offer diversity best practices in teaching and learning, and connect you with community resources.

Cultural Competency Lecture and Events

CDI brings diverse speakers who address a wide range of issues related to culture, race, gender, sexual orientation, social class and economic situation, and their congruence with health disparities and access to care. Social gatherings to celebrate OHSU coming together for networking and community outreach.

Employee Resource Groups

An employee resource group (ERG) is an OHSU-sponsored, employee-managed group of staff, faculty and students who share a similar background. ERGs create opportunities for career development, social support, networking, and community participation. Established groups include:

- African American
- Asian Pacific Islander
- Disability
- International
- Latinos Unidos Organization
- Native American
- OHSU Pride

Diversity Advisory Council *

Comprised of staff, faculty and student representatives from all the university's mission areas, the Diversity Advisory Council (DAC) advises OHSU's president and leadership team on enhancing diversity, cultural competency and opportunity throughout the university.

Student Interest Groups

CDI works closely with diverse student interest groups to provide mentoring, support, and funding

- Asian Pacific American Student Association
- Latino Medical Student Association
- Student National Medical Association
- Students for LGBTQ Health
- Students of Islam and Medicine Society
- OHSU Student Diversity Committee

Student Pipeline Programs

Summer Research Internship

OHSU's Summer Equity Research Program offers a paid internship opportunity for undergraduate students to receive career mentoring and shadowing opportunities from OHSU faculty members during the summer.

Health & Science Conference

OHSU hosts an annual conference for high school and college students who want to pursue a career in health sciences. CDI brings more than 400 students from diverse backgrounds to hear student and faculty panels on fields of study and career paths in health care and research.

Hands-On Research Experience

The Ted R. Lilley Cancer Continuing Umbrella of Research Education (CURE) Project targets high school students to provide hands-on research experience and science exposure to increase participation of historically underserved and disadvantaged students in biomedical research and health-related fields.

 The Diversity Advisory Council is co-led by CDI and OHSU's office of Affirmative Action and Equal Opportunity.*

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Focus on Racial Justice

The Coalition of Communities of Color (CCC) sponsors leadership development initiatives to expand the capacity of communities of color to network, self-organize, and create change toward greater social inclusion. This is achieved through six culturally-specific leadership development programs.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org

African Leadership Development Project Institute

ALDPI raises the visibility of the African community to educate policymakers and create change to more equitably distribute resources to serve the African communities of Oregon.

<http://bit.ly/1khPgJp>

African American Leadership Academy

AALA addresses the cultural, personal, civic and professional needs of emerging African American leaders to develop their skills and commitment to making positive change in the Portland area community.

<http://bit.ly/1csyD5C>

Asian Pacific Islander Community Leadership Institute

API-CLI builds the leadership capacity of Asian Pacific Islander leaders, and brings together API communities for collaboration and partnerships that address racial and ethnic disparities.

<http://bit.ly/1ocbRUS>

LEAD

LEAD develops the skills and relationships among Native American leaders through collaborative learning and expanding networks and ties to their communities.

<http://bit.ly/1eHN9X7>

The Slavic Leadership Project

The Slavic Leadership Project develops and strengthens the leadership capacity of the Slavic community in Oregon to increase visibility and policy change for community-identified issues.

<http://bit.ly/1fwTwT5>

Unid@s for Oregon

Unid@s for Oregon builds relationships and trust among Latino leaders and organizations through a cohesive leadership framework that is cross-regional, cross-sector, and inter-ethnic.

Día De Los Muertos

Milagro Theatre hosts special events to commemorate the Mexican Day of the Dead, a time when Mexican families remember their dead, and the continuity of life. Through music, dance and legend, Milagro explores that thin veil that separates our world from the realm of our indigenous ancestors. Also featured is a display of ofrendas (altars) that are created by local Latino artists. www.milagro.org

El Grito

El Grito, or “the Cry”, represents one of the most iconic Mexican civic celebrations. It recalls the moment in which father Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla, a parish priest in the village of Dolores ringed the bell of the parish on the morning of September 16th 1810 and called Mexicans to rise against the Spanish crown and fight for Independence. Mexico’s birthday celebration is an effort to inspire all and is the perfect occasion for a big “fiesta.” elgritonw.com
