Dear Friends of the Center for Ethics in Health Care:

The generous gift of time of both lay and professional volunteers not only sustained our programs but helped us grow during lean economic times. Volunteers come from myriad professional and community experiences. Time and expertise has been donated by lawyers teaching Professionalism, Law & Ethics in the 4th year medical student course Transition to Residency; health care professionals sharing knowledge about the POLST Program and Registry with colleagues from every Oregon hospital, health system, hospice program and long term care facility; Center faculty leading ethics fellowship sessions; and community volunteers making quilts, hosting events, serving on the Advisory Council or leading death notification role-plays with new interns. We deeply thank each volunteer.

20 Years of Annual Statewide Kinsman Conferences

This year's Kinsman Conference convened Oregon's ethics leaders at St. Charles Medical Center in Bend for 2 days of intense focus on 4 themes: disaster preparedness, public health, decision-making capacity and reproductive health. Described as an "embarrassment of riches," the over 100 ethics leaders were challenged to choose among outstanding workshop sessions. The gathering met John Kinsman's original mission of the 1989 endowment; create innovative practical solutions to vexing health care issues harming Oregonians. The POLST Program is a key example. Conferences rotate between Bend, Eugene, Medford, Portland, and Salem; this being our 4th collaboration with St. Charles colleagues. John Holmes PhD, PeaceHealth Oregon Region Director of Ethics will chair the 21st Annual Kinsman Ethics Conference scheduled for April 14th – 15th, 2011 in Eugene, Oregon.

Over 15,000 POLST Forms Now in Oregon POLST Registry

In February, the Oregon Senate Health Care Committee invited testimony from the Center regarding the Oregon POLST Registry. They were pleased with the effective and rapid implementation. The Registry is receiving POLST forms from every county totaling 1,000 forms/week. Calls to OHSU's Emergency Communication Center occur daily as emergency personnel and hospitals request vital medical orders to guide care in a time of crisis.

Seven Ethics Fellows Complete Training this June

Barbara Glidewell (Administrative Director) and Dr. Robert Potter (Curriculum Director) have created the Center's 2-year Ethics Fellowship. Volunteer faculty, critical to the program's success, have donated countless hours training the next generation of ethics leaders. Graduates with their new or continuing role(s) include: Amanda Baines Ashley, (Community Member Ethics Consult Service/Palliative Care Team); Roxanne Jones, MSW (Ethics Consult Service); Daniel Kennedy, PharmD (School of Pharmacy leader); Katie MacRae, RN, CNS (Nurse Manager); Melissa Monner, MS (School of Dentistry leader); Cody Schuman, MDiv (Ethics Consult Service); and Elizabeth Steiner, MD (IRB Co-Chair). Advisory Council Member, Barbara Sloop, will host a reception at her residence for the graduating fellows in honor of their academic accomplishments.
