10:00 am - 11:30 am

“Refusing Food: Should a Spoon be a Medical Treatment?”

Dr. David Clarke

OHSU Marquam Hill
Casey Eye Institute
MacDonald Auditorium
3375 SW Terwilliger Blvd.
Portland, OR 97239

MODERATED BY DAVID CLARKE, MD

The Dr. Daniel Labby Senior Clinicians' Seminar centers around the creation and presentation of ethical cases to be discussed at these bi-annual gatherings of experienced health care professionals. Dr. Clarke will again serve as our moderator, calling on the expertise of invited colleagues and audience members to explore the ethical dilemmas.

David D. Clarke, MD is President of the Psychophysiologic Disorders Association. He is also Assistant Director at the Center for Ethics and Clinical Assistant Professor of Gastroenterology Emeritus both at Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) in Portland, Oregon. He is Associate Faculty at Arizona State University, Clinical Advisor to the Stress Illness Recovery Practitioners Association (U.K.) and a Clinical Lecturer with Pacific University in Oregon.
