Biography - Historical Note

University of Oregon Medical School interns received clinical instruction under a 1923 agreement between the Multnomah County Commissioners and the University of Oregon Medical School. Cooperation between the University of Oregon Medical School and the county for clinical experience for junior and senior medical students began in 1907 in the Portland Free Dispensary, which closed in 1923.

Conditions Governing Reproduction and Use

The OHSU Historical Collections & Archives is the owner of the materials and makes available reproductions for research, publication, and other uses. Written permission must be obtained from the OHSU HC&A before any reproduction use. The OHSU HC&A does not necessarily hold copyright to all of the materials in the collections. In some cases, permission for use may require seeking additional authorization from the copyright owners.

Acquisition Information

The photographs were traditionally hung in the hallways of Multnomah County Hospital. The materials, stored in a closet in Mackenzie Hall, were found framed and protected by glass. The OHSU Library Special Collections staff processed the materials March 2002.
