Biographical/Historical note

Nursing education at the Medical School was organized on a collegiate basis and led to a BS degree. The curricula, coordinated with clinical education in the UOMS hospitals and clinics, prepared the students for state registration.

Nursing Care Studies was taught in the Department of Nursing Education at the University of Oregon Medical School by Mary Toy, BA, RN, MSN (assistant professor of Nursing Education and a member of the committee on Instruction in Clinical Nursing) and Mildred Bergheim, MA, MSW, (supervisor of and instructor in medical social service and a member of the Scholarship committee). The students studied the principles underlying nursing care and application of the methods used and found effective in other fields to the development and use of nursing case histories. Lectures: 2-4 hours; 22-24 hours.

Scope and Contents

This collection consists of 8 studies (2 in one file) of patients made by nurses as part of their clerkship. The time period is the 1940s (WWII). They were at one time part of the library holdings, but re-assigned to the archival collection in 2008.

Arrangement

The nursing studies are arranged by date. Though patient names and other PHI are in the files, no such information is listed in the inventory itself. The cases are referred to by their diagnostic descriptions.
