Hokkaido University School of Dentistry. Sapporo, Japan. Official Banner of Hokkaido University School of Dentistry 1983

Meaning and origin

Banner, 8x12 in., with SOD logo on a wooden rod

Small triangular block with Japanese writing

Kinai Tomita 1983? Probably from 1983 visit by delegation from Hokkaido Dental School.

Osamu Nishikaze, D.Sc., M.D. 1983? Probably from 1983 visit by delegation from Hokkaido Dental School.

F2 - Book in Japanese 2001 8x6 in. paperback book with Hokkaido University's flower on the front cover, and its flower logo on the back. Completely in Japanese, there is the year 2001 after what seems to be an author's note. Photos throughout, and an architectural diagram at the front (with the year 1902) indicate this may be a history of the school. Prominence of the number 125 may indicate it is a 125th anniversary retrospective.

F3 - Ceremony Program - 2 copies 1983-06-13 Program for "1973-1983 Commemoration Ceremony honoring the tenth anniversary of a sister school affiliation."

F4 - Tokyo Dental College Souvenir booklet 1930 Titled: "Souvenir with Compliments of Tokyo Dental College". 11x8.5, 30 page, ribbon bound booklet, dated November 1930. Text describing history, funding, staffing and facilities. Floor schematics and black and white photos of facility. German and English text and photo descriptions.

F5 - Book: "Columbia Dental College" 1974 Book of compiled congratulatory messages in English and Japanese upon the opening of the Columbia Dental Center in Tokyo, Japan. Included is a letter from Dean Louis G. Terkla, D.M.D.

F6 - Program book: "Scientific Session Program Abstracts" 1999-09-30 Program book subtitle: "September 30, 1999; Sister School Affiliation: 1973 - 1999; Oregon Health Sciences University School of Dentistry & Hokkaido University School of Dentistry; On occasion of: OHSU School of Dentistry Centennial 1899- 1999". Schedule and abstracts of scientific sessions.

F7 - Invitation to Celebratory Dinner 1999-09-30 Invitation text reads: "Dean Sharon Turner invites you and a guest to a celebratory dinner in honor of our sister school affiliation of 26 years and the 100th anniversary of the School of Dentistry."

F8 - Correspondence

Correspondence Description

Correspondence, primarily regarding scheduling and drafts of communication with Hokkaido delegation in 1999 for the 100th anniversary of SOD. Also drafts of Sister School Affiliation Certificates. Correspondents include Thomas R. Shearer, Nobuo Katsura, Mayor, City of Sapporo; Vera Katz, Mayor, City of Portland; Jackie S. Powell, Administrative Coordinator, Office of Outreach, OHSU SOD; Akira Matsumoto, DDS., Ph D., Dean, Department of Dental Pharmacology, School of Dentistry, Hokkaido University.

Blue City of Sapporo Folder

Book: "Hokkaido University; 1876-2001" Book in Japanese seems to describe history and mission of Hokkaido University on the occasion of its 125th anniversary. Includes color and black and white photos and diagrams of buildings. Has similarities to book on 125th anniversary of Hokkaido School of Dentistry (2010.019, box 6, folder 2).

Tortoiseshell Ship Model

Historical Note

Model presented to Portland Mayor Terry Schruck by representatives from Sapporo, Japan, Portland's Sister City, probably in 1973, upon signing agreements. See photo of presentation in this collection, B6F1.
