Biographical/Historical note

Dr. Crawshaw was born in New York City in 1921. He graduated from New York University College of Medicine in 1947. His internship was at Lenox Hill Hospital, New York, NY. His residency was at Menninger School of Psychiatry, Topeka, KS and Oregon State Hospital, Salem, OR. He served in the US Navy from 1951 to 1954. After practice in Washington, D.C. and Topeka, KS, he came to Portland, OR in 1960. He served in several clinics, then entered private practice of psychiatry in 1960, retiring in 2001.

He has been a member of many professional organizations, including as co-founder of The Foundation for Medical Excellence. He has received many awards for his community service, humanitarian efforts, writing skills, and professional leadership. He has demonstrated concerns for local, national and worldwide issues in health care. He is a prolific writer, with editorial appointments to numerous publications. He has been a lecturer and Clinical Professor at OHSU. He was named Oregon Doctor-Citizen of the Year in 1978.

Veteran of many overseas meetings, he was given these recordings while on a Physician Exchange program in the Soviet Union in the 1970s. A program dated 1972 is included which was for the IX International Association of Gerontology conference in Kiev. The 3 LPs are were produced by the Soviet Academy of Medical Sciences, Moscow.
