Oregon Health & Science University School of Dentistry Student Research Group

Constitution

Preamble

We, the members of the Student Research Group do hereby establish this Constitution in order that our purpose be realized to its fullest extent.

Article I. Name

Section 1. The name of the organization will be the "Student Research Group" henceforth referred to as SRG.

Article II. Purpose

Section 1. The SRG is established to further the aims and objectives of the American Association for Dental Research (AADR), International Association for Dental Research (IADR) and the National Student Research Group (NSRG) by:

- Promoting dental student research
- Advocating for the advancement of dental research
- Providing professional development programs
- Creating a community for student researchers

Section 2. The SRG understands and is committed to fulfilling its responsibilities of abiding by Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU), School of Dentistry (SoD), and the OHSU Research policies.

Article III. Membership

Section 1. Active membership shall be students (to include pre-baccalaureate, pre-doctoral, graduate residents, post-graduate, post-doctoral) associated OHSU SoD and who have previous research experience, intention to work on a research project at OHSU SoD, or general interest in participation or review of current research.

Section 2. There are no dues required to join the OHSU SRG.

Section 3. The SRG openly admits students to its membership and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, personal appearance, age, religion, national origin, political affiliation, physical or mental disability, or on the basis of rights secured by the First Amendment of the United States Constitution.

Article IV. Officers and Governance

Section 1. The SRG will be governed by a board of officers ("Officers"). The Officers shall include at least four officer members; namely, the president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer. Additional Officers shall be considered as appropriate, depending on specific needs. Examples are noted in the bylaws, under the section “Board Elections, Appointments, Terms of Office. The following describes the Officers’ roles and responsibilities:

The President will preside at all meetings of the SRG. The President will maintain the power to appoint all committee chairpersons, shall present all motions to the body present.

The Vice President shall support and assist the President in any way necessary. In the absence of the President, the Vice President shall preside at all meetings and functions.

The Secretary shall maintain an accurate list of members, take and distribute meeting minutes and maintain historical records/documents of business at Officer meetings. The Secretary shall administrate the annual election of officers.

The Treasurer shall oversee the SRG’s annual budget and financial reports and handle all financial accounts.

Section 2. A faculty advisor shall assist the Officers. The advisor shall be sincerely dedicated to enhancing student research/scholarship opportunities, implementation of supportive curricular components, organization of institutional research/scholarly activities, and coordination of relevant regional/national activities. The faculty advisor may participate at Officer and general meetings but must not vote on any SRG matter. The advisor is a volunteer, appointed by the Associate Dean for Research at OHSU SoD.

The role and duties of the faculty/staff advisor providing counsel to the organization’s officers, serve as advocating faculty for the group, etc.

Article V. Operations

Section 1. Voting Eligibility: Officers, as set forth in Article IV, will be granted voting privileges.

Section 2. Election Process: All officers shall be elected by a majority vote of eligible voting members of the SRG. All elections will be held on an annual basis during Spring Quarter, with the exception of DS1 class representative nominations, which will occur during Fall Quarter.

The President will take self-nominations from those interested.

All voting shall be done by secret ballot to be collected and tabulated by the Secretary and one voting member of the SRG appointed by the current President.

Section 3. Removal: Any officer of the SRG in violation of the SRG’s purpose or constitution may be removed from office by the following process:

a. A written request signed by at least three members of the SRG.
