

Awards Categories:

Educator Award: Recognizes a student who demonstrates commitment to mentoring, presenting or teaching. The goal of education is for greater awareness about pertinent health issues, to inspire the desire to learn and/or questioning, to teach about innovation and new areas of research, to prevent risky behavior and/or to enhance and enable learning.

OHSU Student Service Award: Recognizes student service to the OHSU student community. The goal of this service should be to increase the quality of life for OHSU students.

Global/International Service Award: Recognizes a student who has done exceptional work in research, education, public service, or clinical service at an international level.

Community Outreach & Clinical Service Award: Recognizes a student who demonstrates outstanding commitment to service the community and enhancing the health and/or quality of life of others.

Forging the Way Award: Recognizes the hard work of a group of students who have collectively volunteered to change their community.

Excellence in Journalism Award: Recognizes a student who demonstrates skill in using the written word to share their knowledge or opinion on an important health/science-related issue.

Faculty Award: Recognizes a faculty member who has been a role model in community or international service, or whose attitude and actions produce superior patient care or teaching environments.

Volunteer of the Year: Recognizes a student who has demonstrated a sustained mission toward service. The Volunteer of the Year will have participated in service in at least two of the above areas and exemplifies OHSU's service vision to the community and beyond.

*A special thank you goes to tonight's musicians

Welcome!

The Student Volunteer Recognition and Awards Ceremony arose as a way to recognize and celebrate the hard work, generosity, and compassion displayed by OHSU students across schools, campuses and programs. The volunteer work of the students we honor tonight is both inspiring and vastly important. It was extremely difficult to choose the winners for these awards because all of the candidates have an amazing scope of activities that prove how vested they are in improving their communities.

Tonight's event is feasible in large part due to financial support from the OHSU All-Hill Student Council and we would like to thank them for their generous contributions in recognizing these students who embody the vision of OHSU.

This is the eighth year of bringing together students, faculty and administrators from across campus to celebrate the spirit of volunteerism and the values we share in striving to make the world a better place. We hope you enjoy yourself and take the time to meet and be inspired by some of the wonderful people gathered here tonight.

*Sincerely,
Volunteer Awards Planning Committee*
