New Postings

Howard Hughes Medical Institute – International Student Research Fellowship

<http://www.hhmi.org/programs/international-student-research-fellowships>

A new fellowship program supporting outstanding international predoctoral students studying in the U.S. who are ineligible for fellowships or training grants through U.S. federal agencies. HHMI will award three-year fellowships to international students to support years three, four, and five of a Ph.D. program. Eligible biomedical-related fields include biology, chemistry, physics, math, computer science, engineering, and plant biology as well as interdisciplinary research. Internal deadline: October 17, 2014

Letter of Intent: November 18, 2014 Sponsor deadline: February 12, 2015

Award: $30,000 per year plus allowances for three years.

Eligibility: OHSU may only submit a limited number of nominations. Participation is by invitation only.

Invited students must be currently in their second or third year of a PhD program in the biomedical or related sciences at a designated nominating institution to activate the fellowship. Students in their first, second, or fifth year of their PhD programs cannot activate the fellowship. In no case will support past year five of the PhD program be provided. Questions? Taylor St. Clair stclair@ohsu.edu Administrative Coordinator, Research Funding & Development Services

Nature paper: Insights into gibbon evolution

By sequencing the gibbon genome, a team led by Lucia Carbone, Ph.D., furthers knowledge of this species.

OHSU selected for NIH project to catalog human cellular responses

Six research institutions join LINCS as new centers. Joe Gray, Ph.D., awarded $10.3 million over six years, will lead the OHSU team studying cell microenvironments. <http://o2.ohsu.edu/blogs/insidesom/2014/09/16/ohsu-joins-elite-group-of-six-new-centers-established-by-nih/>

Grant & Fellowship Opportunities

NIH issues “Follow that Cell” challenge, offering $500,000 in prizes

The NIH is challenging researchers to compete for prizes totaling up to $500,000 for developing new ways to track the health status of a single cell in complex tissue over time. The NIH Follow that Cell Challenge seeks tools that would, for example, monitor a cell in the process of becoming cancerous, detect changes due to a disease-causing virus, or track how a cell responds to treatment. “Advances in cellular analysis promise earlier diagnosis and improved therapies for diseases, from cancer to Alzheimer’s,” said James Anderson, M.D., Ph.D., director of NIH’s Division of Program Coordination, Planning, and Strategic Initiatives. “These prizes will also help to stimulate new businesses and economic growth in our biomedical communities.” The Challenge aims to generate creative ideas and methods for following and predicting a single cell’s behavior and function over time in a complex multicellular environment – preferably using multiple integrated measures to detect its changing state.

MRF Grants

The Medical Research Foundation (MRF) supports promising biomedical exploration and the development of research careers in clinical investigation in Oregon through a program of competitively awarded research grants. Most MRF grants are awarded quarterly. MRF Grant Applicants: Application guidelines are subject to change between deadlines. Please carefully review the guidelines each time you submit an application. August 2014: New naming conventions are required; see guidelines for specific instructions.

<http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/about/foundation/about/medical-research-foundation/grants.cfm>

New Investigator Grant: Maximum grant award: $40,000, Two to three grants awarded quarterly
Application deadline dates: Feb. 15, May 15, Aug. 15, Nov. 15.

Early Clinical Investigator Grant: Maximum grant award: $20,000, Two to three grants awarded quarterly
Application deadline dates: Feb. 15, May 15, Aug. 15, Nov. 15.

American Cancer Society Research Scholar Grant applications due Oct. 15

Research Scholar Grants are intended to provide support for investigator-initiated projects across the cancer research continuum. These grants provide up to $165,000 per year for up to four years and typically cover the costs of salaries, consumable supplies, and other miscellaneous items required to conduct the proposed research. This funding mechanism supports basic, preclinical, clinical, epidemiological, psychosocial, behavioral research, and research in palliative care and symptom management. Independent investigators within the first six years of an independent career, within a total of 12 years from the awarding of their terminal degree, and with no more than one R01-type grant are eligible to apply.

Applications are due October 15, 2014

SAVE THE DATES

2015 Convocation and Hooding Ceremony

Friday, 6/5/2015 at the Oregon Convention Center. Regalia ordering should begin in February.

2015 Research Week

May 4-8, 2015 <http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/research/research-week/>

Prior Postings

Growth & Change in Cell & Developmental Biology

Expanded new name reflects faculty shifts, new faculty and growth of cancer biology investigation. Related, the OHSU Cancer Biology Graduate Program is flourishing.

<http://o2.ohsu.edu/blogs/insidesom/2014/09/09/department-of-cell-and-developmental-biology-changes-its-name/>

2014-2015 Marquam Hill Lectures

The Marquam Hill Lecture Series is one of the most popular and long-standing lecture series about science by scientists in Oregon. Full information, and the link to RSVP for each lecture, is available at:

<http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/schools/school-of-medicine/about/marquam-hill-lectures.cfm>

Secrets of the Developing Brain Presented by Bonnie Nagel, Ph.D.

October 16, 2014, 7 p.m., OHSU Auditorium

Beating Cancer with Exercise Presented by Kerri Winters-Stone, Ph.D., FACSM

November 20, 2014, 7 p.m., OHSU Auditorium

Ending an Epidemic: OHSU's Hunt for an HIV Vaccine Presented by Louis Picker, M.D.

February 19, 2015, 7 p.m., Collaborative Life Sciences Building*

The Magic of Microbubbles Presented by Sanjiv Kaul, M.D.

April 16, 2015, 7 p.m., OHSU Auditorium

Declaring War on Melanoma Presented by Sancy Leachman, M.D., Ph.D.

May 21, 2015, 7 p.m., OHSU Auditorium

OHSU Alumni gives TELMED talk

OHSU's own Jeff Iliff, PhD (Physiology & Pharmacology 2010) will be giving a TELMED talk on Wednesday, September 10. Dr. Iliff will be discussing the relationship between the brain, sleep and Alzheimer's disease.

TELMED Live Wednesday, September 10 – Friday, September 12, 2014

Link: <http://www.tedmed.com/tedmedlive2014/register>

TELMED Live is available for streaming to all OHSU employees and students using the Affiliate ID L04748. Check out the schedule and learn more at the TELMED Live website. Note: The TELMED Live website does not support Internet Explorer 8, the default browser at OHSU. Try Chrome, Firefox or Safari instead.

Have you heard about ORCID?

ORCID is an online product that provides a persistent digital identifier that distinguishes researchers uniquely; is integrated in key research workflows such as manuscript and grant submission, and supports automated linkages between researchers and professional activities. ORCID Registry is free of charge, easy to set up, curate and publish, and allows varying levels of privacy. The use of ORCID will allow easier tracking of publications and grants and ORCID numbers can be attached to all current and future grants, publications, and manuscripts. Set up your account at <http://orcid.org/>

Questions regarding ORCID? Contact Jackie Wirz wirzj@ohsu.edu or Robin Champieux champieu@ohsu.edu
SOM Graduate Studies is requiring that ALL SOM Graduate Students register for ORCID, and provide the ID’s to our office, to assist in tracking student publications and grant submissions.

Pursue Your Financial Freedom - Apply for NIH Loan Repayment Program Awards

The National Institutes of Health Loan Repayment Programs (LRPs) repay the student loans of doctoral level, biomedical or behavioral scientists conducting research funded by nonprofit institutions. The application cycle opens on September 1, 2014 and closes on November 17, 2014. You may be eligible to receive up to $70,000 of qualified educational debt repayment with a 2 year contract. Full information and to apply:

http://www.lrp.nih.gov/apply\_here/index.aspx

Leadership transition in the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology

Peter Rotwein, M.D., is stepping down from his role as chair of the Department of Biochemistry and Molecular Biology, effective November 2, 2014. Dr. Rotwein has accepted a position as Associate Dean for Research and as Assistant Vice President of Research at the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center (TTUHSC) in El Paso. He also will serve as Chair of the Department of Biomedical Sciences in the Paul L. Foster School of Medicine at TTUHSC. After consultations with Dr. Rotwein, faculty and other leaders over the next month, Dean Richardson will appoint an interim chair of the department.

Important NIH updates on genomic data sharing, IACUC review, and biosafety

The National Institutes of Health has issued several notices of interest to OHSU Researchers. The following is a summary of those announcements:

NIH finalized the NIH Genomic Data Sharing policy. Starting with funding applications submitted for a Jan. 25, 2015, receipt date, the policy will apply to all NIH-funded, large-scale human and nonhuman projects that generate genomic data. If you’re applying, you must state in your cover letter that you will be generating this type of data; applications are now required to include a genomic data sharing plan. Refer to the implementation guidelines to learn more about how this new policy may affect you, and see further comments in Nature.

Changes to IACUC guidance from NIH

The NIH has issued new guidance regarding how you manage IACUC review, clarifying when additional review may be needed—such as when you need to make significant changes to your protocols, e.g. nonsurvival to survival surgery, changes in housing, or alterations of the study objectives—or when changes can be made administratively. Our IACUC leadership is currently weighing the implications of this guidance. Stay tuned, and in the meantime you can read what your colleagues across the U.S. said about this dilemma.

September is National Biosafety Stewardship Month

Your federal agencies care about your safety, and they want you to care too: September is National Biosafety Stewardship Month, a new effort to make sure we don't expose one another to anthrax or flu or other dangerous things. They are urging all DHHS grantees to participate in this effort and remain vigilant about safety.

Technology Transfer & Business Development Awards

Monday, October 6th at CLSB, PSU Lecture Hall, first floor from 5-8 pm

Drinks and hors d'oeuvres will be served at the opening reception with the ceremony beginning at 6 pm. The office of Technology Transfer & Business Development invites the OHSU community to attend the 2014 TTBD Awards Ceremony. Awards will be presented to OHSU community members for their collaborations and efforts in licensing, sponsored research, patenting, and entrepreneurship. In addition, top honors will be awarded in the categories of New Inventor of the Year, Business Development Partnership, Technology Transfer Achievement, and TTBD Appreciation. Please join TTBD for this special event to support your colleagues and to learn more about innovation and entrepreneurship at OHSU. Register here to attend 2014 TTBD Awards ceremony.

NIH Revised notice on Individual Development Plans for Grad Students and Postdocs

NIH, August 4, released a revised notice on the use of individual development plans for graduate students and postdoctoral researchers. "NIH annual progress reports received on/after October 1, 2014 must include a section to describe how individual development plans (IDPs) are used to identify and promote the career goals of graduate students and postdoctoral researchers associated with the award." Please see:

<http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-14-113.html>

NIH's Sally Rockey, deputy director for extramural research, August 5, posted a blog entry on progress in meeting NIH's biomedical research workforce goals, including increasing postdoc stipends, collecting data on postdoc benefits, automating NRSA training grant application tables, the development of a tracking system for trainees, and the creation of an office in the NIH Office of the Director to assess the biomedical research workforce. A blog entry on August 8 discusses issues concerning women in biomedical research. See:

New OHSU Student Portal

OHSU now has a Student Portal for Graduate Students. Students will find news updates from all of OHSU in one central location, and see Graduate Studies postings specific for their program and degree. For the next few weeks, while we transition to the Portal, the student bulletin will still be sent. By the end of September, all student news will be uploaded to the Portal only. Program coordinators will be assigned administrator access soon so they can post program/degree specific information to their students portal.

The Faculty Bulletin will still be sent to all Graduate Faculty.

Reproductive Hazards for Laboratory Workers

The OHSU Environmental Health and Radiation Safety Office, in collaboration with Women in Science, has developed a Reproductive Hazards for Laboratory Workers guideline! EHRs offers personalized, confidential risk assessments for anyone at OHSU, so that you can learn about what special precautions to take in the lab if you are pregnant or thinking of becoming pregnant. This is a big step forward in addressing basic chemical and biological safety of pregnant lab workers. <http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/about/services/integrity/ehrs/chemical-safety/upload/Reproductive-Hazards-for-Laboratory-Workers.pdf> A full list of the chemical safety information can be found at <http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/about/services/integrity/ehrs/chemical-safety/index.cfm>

Cloud storage now available for OHSU researchers

A new cloud-based file storage system called Box is available for all OHSU faculty, students, fellows, and staff. Box is similar to Dropbox or Google Drive but with added protections for confidential data and protected health information. <http://www.ohsu.edu/blogs/researchnews/2014/08/05/cloud-storage-now-available-for-ohsu-researchers/>

OHSU Research Headlines: <http://ozone.ohsu.edu/blogs/somresearchvoice/2011/08/17/who-made-headlines-ohsu-research-in-the-news/>

The new OHSU Funding Opportunities database is now online. This customized database houses opportunities, primarily from non-governmental sources, of particular relevance to OHSU researchers. The database is also used to track all limited submission opportunities and their corresponding internal deadlines, including federal opportunities. If you have any questions or would like us to demonstrate this tool for you, contact funding@ohsu.edu.

We're on the web! The bulletin is archived on the web at <http://www.ohsu.edu/xd/education/schools/school-of-medicine/academic-programs/graduate-studies/faculty/index.cfm>

For full information and other notices regarding seminars, dissertation/thesis defenses and social activities the Graduate Studies calendar and news can be found on our website www.ohsu.edu/som/graduate If you know of Graduate Students or Graduate Faculty who are not receiving this e-mail, please have them email us at somgrad@ohsu.edu

Any graduate student, faculty or group may request an event posted to the Graduate Studies calendar, just click the 'see all' at the bottom of the calendar at under 'Event Finder' choose 'Submit an event' or see your program coordinator for assistance. For News event postings, or assistance with the calendar or other items, e-mail us at somgrad@ohsu.edu

Want an event or news posted to the bulletin? Please send to somgrad@ohsu.edu by noon the Thursday prior to make it into the next week's bulletin.
