Madeleine Sanford wins Golden Rose Award

Madeleine Sanford, Family Nurse Practitioner at Family Medicine at Richmond, was the recipient of a Golden Rose Award at a noon ceremony on March 25. The Golden Rose Award recognizes excellence in Service. Sanford was nominated for the award by Lisa Willwerth, RN, also at Richmond.

Joe Skarsh, DO, MPH, Family Medicine at Scappoose, was inducted into the OHSU Chapter of the Gold Humanism Society on March 16.

John Skarsh, DO, MPH, Family Medicine Researcher Richard Deyo, MD, MPH, has been awarded the 2015 Wiltse Lifetime Achievement Award from the International Society for the Study of the Lumbar Spine (ISSLS).

5 faculty earn Choosing Wisely Awards

Ryan Palmer, Ed.D., (Emma Jones Hall) Benjamin Schneider, M.D., (South Waterfront) and Fran Biagioli, M.D., (Gabriel Park) submitted a proposal to further pilot the Telemedicine Objective Structured Clinical Exam (TeleOSCE) project.

Cliff Coleman, M.D., MPH, (Richmond) was one of four faculty and two students to submit a proposal to incorporate Choosing Wisely into the undergraduate medical education curriculum, YOUR M.D.

A proposal submitted by Judy Richardson, M.D., (The Dalles) submitted a proposal calling for the Clinical Advisory Panel to continue adopt Choosing Wisely as a tool to help standardize waste reduction.

Patient visits, February

- Gabriel Park: 2,874 (295 under goal)
- Scappoose: 2,567 (130 above goal)
- South Waterfront: 3,783 (370 under goal)

Phone Abandonment Rates, January

- Gabriel Park: 7%
- Scappoose: 5.5%
- South Waterfront: 18.94%