

Department of Family Medicine
18th Annual
Pennington Lectures
 in Family Medicine

Morning Program
Times	Topic	Speaker
8-8:25 a.m.	Registration - Resident Poster Presentations
8:25-8:30 a.m.	Welcome & Orientation	John Saultz, MD
8:30-9 a.m.	Hepatitis C - New Screening; New Treatments	Atif Zaman, MD
9-9:30 a.m.	Evaluating Drugs: What Physicians Should Know About Drug Approval	Craig Williams, Pharm D
9:30-10 a.m.	Group Visits to Enhance Your Care: Panel Discussion	Ben Schneider, MD, et al
10-10:20 a.m.	Questions & Answers
10:20-10:45 a.m.	Refreshment Break - Resident Poster Presentations
10:45-11:15 a.m.	Integrating the Dermatoscope into Clinical Practice	Alex Verdieck, MD
11:15-11:45 a.m.	Hanging on to the Dragon - Getting Paid in Changing Times	Ben Cox, MBA, FACMPE
11:45 a.m.-Noon	Questions & Answers
Noon-12:45 p.m.	Lunch & Discussion with Speakers; Continued Q & A
12:45-1 p.m.	Master Teacher Awards	Peggy O'Neill, BA
1-2:15 p.m.	Merle Pennington Lecture: What Clinicians Need to Know About the Future of the Family Medicine Project	John Saultz, MD
2:15-2:30 p.m.	Refreshment Break - Resident Poster Presentations

Concurrent Afternoon Workshops 2:30-4 p.m.
Topic	Speaker	Room
How We Learn, How We Teach: Be the Best you Can!	Lisa Ray, MD	CHH3-1A
The New Patient-Centeredness: Every Visit Cross-Cultural	Cliff Coleman, MD	CHH 3-5
Keeping Older Patients Driving Safely	Sumathi Devarajan, MD; Lisa Wallig, Gerontologist, Medical Programs Coordinator; Cleon Cox, AARP Safety Driving Instructor	CHH3-4
Telehealth 101 - Patient Care by Wire	Mark Lovgren, MBA; Miles Ellenby, MD	CHH3-1B

Robert B. Taylor Society Annual Dinner
6-9:30 p.m.	Riverview Courtyard at RiverPlace Hotel	Members only