All in the Family

Gabriel Park hires employees' children for the summer

Family Medicine at Gabriel Park has been expanding the definition of "family medicine" by providing learning experiences for students who are also children of staff members.

Five students have spent time at the clinic this summer, acquiring work experience in the back or front office. This has benefitted the clinic by addressing tasks that, which important, often fall to the bottom of the To Do list. The students have gained knowledge about the medical clinic environment, and personal insight into whether the environment might be right for them. Read more
