

Moe presentations

PRESENTATIONS

1. Foundations of Health Lecture, "Research-oriented career opportunities in health education". Portland State University, 1989 and 1991
2. Pulmonary Grand Rounds Presentation, "Smoking attitudes, knowledge and behavior of a cohort of alpha-1 antitrypsin deficient teenagers". Oregon Health Sciences University, 1990
3. Family Nursing Research Study Association Colloquium, "The family with an asthmatic child". Oregon Health Sciences University, November, 1990
4. Community Education Seminar, "Asthma: the fears, the facts, the future". Oregon Health Sciences University, October 1991 and 1993.
5. Asthma Camp Educational Program, American Lung Association Camp Christmas Seal, 1991 and 1992.
6. Parents of Asthmatics Support Group Presentation, "Development of an Asthma Management Plan". American Lung Association of Oregon, March, 1992
7. Drug Abuse Prevention for Adolescent Athletes; Am Coll Sports Med national meeting; Minneapolis, Minnesota; 1995.
8. Health Education Teaching Methods, "ATLAS: An evolving program. Evaluation and improvement of curriculum interventions". Portland State University, 1996
9. Project ATLAS – Anabolic Steroid Prevention Project. US Department of Education, Safe and Drug-Free Schools. Presented June 16, 1997.
10. Health Education Teaching Methods, "ATLAS: An evolving program. Evaluation and improvement of curriculum interventions". Portland State University, March, 1996.
11. Project ATLAS – Anabolic Steroid Prevention Project. US Department of Education, Safe and Drug-Free Schools. Presented June 16, 1997.
12. "Drug use and prevention in high school athletics". Presentation to the Issues in High School Sports class, University of Oregon, March 3, 1998.
13. Athletes Training and Learning to Avoid Steroids (ATLAS). US Department of Education, Safe and Drug-Free Schools. Presented at the Prevention in Context: What Works and Under What Conditions meeting Sept, 2001.
14. A sport team-centered curricula can prevent disordered eating and drug use. The 7th IOC Olympic World Congress, Athens, Greece, 2003.
15. Drug Prevention and Health Promotion for Adolescent Athletes: The ATLAS and ATHENA Programs. Athletics and Exercise Sciences Symposium, Colby-Sawyer College, April 4, 2005.