We are proud to offer the 11th annual OHSU course directed to hospitalists and other practitioners of inpatient medicine. The course was developed through the sponsorship of the OHSU Division of Hospital Medicine and the Oregon Chapter of the Society of Hospital Medicine. The course planning committee represents both academic interests and the needs of the active practitioner.

At the conclusion of the course, participants will be able to:

- Better prepare hospitalized patients and their families for transition to skilled nursing facilities
- Incorporate new therapeutic approaches into the care of patients with acute nephritic syndrome
- Include new sepsis guidelines in their care of patients with acute hemodynamic decompensation

Bedside Ultrasound Pre-Course Workshop

Sentinel Hotel, Portland, Oregon
September 21, 2016

Point-of-care ultrasound is playing an increased role in care provided by hospitalists. This educational activity will incorporate brief didactic and hands-on practice with live models; topic areas will include cardiac, lung and the abdomen. Two sessions will be offered on Wednesday September 21st; the morning session will be basic, while the afternoon session will be more advanced. Each session has a separate registration. Prior to August 15th workshop enrollment is limited to those attending the two day course. If space permits, stand-alone registration for the workshops will open August 15th.

At the conclusion of the course, participants will be able to:

- Outline introductory ultrasound and knobology
- Explain the general indications and limitations when using point-of-care ultrasound in a hospital setting
Location: The NW Regional Hospital Medicine Conference will be held at the Sentinel Hotel at 614 SW 11th Ave, Portland.
