Flourish
100 years of nursing at OHSU

The OHSU School of Nursing is celebrating its centennial in 2010-2011. Come see how we are flourishing.

EAST COAST ALUMNI DINNER with
MICHAEL BLEICH, PH.D., R.N., F.A.A.N.
DEAN OF THE OHSU SCHOOL OF NURSING AND AAN FELLOWS

Join fellow alumni and friends for a special gathering to renew friendships and learn about the OHSU School of Nursing’s bright future.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 2010 ~ 6:30 - 8:30 P.M.

PS 7’S RESTAURANT
777 I (Eye) Street, Washington, D.C.

For more information or to RSVP, please call Russ Levin at 503 494-7525.

On June 12, 1911, seven nurses graduated from the Multnomah Hospital Training School, which later became OHSU and the School of Nursing. From education and practice to research and leadership, our nurses and school have flourished for 100 years. Celebrate with alumni and friends as we connect our past with the future we envision.