

NATIVE AMERICAN HERITAGE

Join us in celebration

Miles Bernadett Peters is Mashpee Wampanoag born on Monomoscoy Island, tribal land in Cape Cod, Massachusetts.

Miles Bernadett Peters worked as an interpreter for the Plymouth Plantation History Museum, a Smithsonian affiliate representing the history of New England in a modern Native Perspective.

Presentation will describe the historical events that occurred after European migration from a Native American perspective.

Enjoy an exclusive drum performance by Four Directions and a group of professional Native American dancers after the lecture.
