

Center for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs

CeDMA supports and works in collaboration with the academic units, hospitals and other campus and community resources in promoting an environment that values and nurtures an inclusive environment of diversity through various resources and programs for students, staff and faculty.

High School Program

CURE Program

The Ted R. Lilley Cancer CURE Program is a research mentorship training at the Oregon Health & Science University (OHSU) Knight Cancer Institute. It is designed to offer research experiences to students from socially and economically disadvantaged populations from the Portland metropolitan area. The long-term goals of this program are to give hands-on research experience and science exposure to disadvantaged students in biomedical research and other health-related programs. Learn more about the CURE Program.

College Programs

Equity Summer Research Program

The Graduate Programs in the School of Medicine offers an exciting opportunity to spend 8 to 10 weeks working with faculty and graduate students in a research setting, learning new skills and gaining experience.

Career Conference

Each year, the Center for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs invites all in-state and out-of-state undergraduate, post-baccalaureate and graduate students interested in pursuing a career in healthcare, science and engineering to attend our Annual OHSU Multicultural Health, Science & Engineering Career Conference.

Conference Objectives:

- Encourage diverse students to enter the health and science professions
- Provide students with insight on health care and science professions in medicine, nursing, dentistry, allied health, engineering, biomedical informatics, dietetics & nutrition and pharmacy
- Provide admission processes and other relevant information
- Introduce students to OHSU educational programs, faculty, facilities and resources
- Promote bicultural/bilingual prospective health and science providers
