

Free Head & Neck Cancer Screening

Today it's OK to stick your tongue out at people.

Friday, May 13 • 7 a.m. - 3 p.m. • No Appointments Necessary
OHSU Center for Health & Healing Lobby • 3303 S.W. Bond Ave.
Near the Portland Aerial Tram

As part of national Head and Neck Cancer Awareness Week, the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute is offering FREE head and neck cancer screenings.

Screening is quick and painless. You'll receive a personalized risk assessment for the following:

- Skin cancer (face and scalp), including melanoma
- Oral (mouth and throat) cancer
- Thyroid cancer
- Neck cancer

OHSU doctors will also answer your questions and help you tell the difference between harmless symptoms and potentially dangerous signs of cancer.

Can't make the May 13 screening in Portland?

There's an additional screening hosted by Salem Cancer Institute on:
Saturday, May 14 • 9am - 1pm
Salem Hospital Campus • Building C - first floor
890 Oak ST. SE, Salem, OR 97301
For more information call 503 562-4321.

Lower Your Risk ...

Many head and neck cancers can be linked to tobacco use or sun exposure and are preventable. Head and neck cancers can be cured if found early. At the screening get information to help you stop smoking and be safe in the sun.

OHSU Knight Cancer Institute

With the latest treatments, technologies and clinical trials, we are the only Cancer Center in Oregon designated by the National Cancer Institute — an honor earned only by the nation's top cancer centers.
