Thank you for your interest in making the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute the beneficiary of your fundraising efforts. We are very grateful for the volunteers and organizations whose committed efforts raise support and awareness for cancer research and care.

The Knight Cancer Institute is transforming how the world understands and fights cancer. The institute’s groundbreaking discoveries – including the world’s first targeted cancer therapy – have proven that targeted, personalized cures for cancer are possible. Our mission is to end cancer as we know it. Through a robust research program we are committed to finding and matching patients to the best treatments and launching an unprecedented initiative around early cancer detection. We are also dedicated to providing an array of patient support programs and services to support people living with cancer. This includes building a guest house for patients who travel out of town and face an extended stay for care. You can designate your support to any of these areas and bring hope to patients and their families.

This guide outlines our promotional, financial and gift processing policies. To help ensure that volunteer events and cause marketing promotions are successful, make best use of limited staff resources, and are coordinated with our other activities, please carefully review our fundraising guidelines and submit a proposal well in advance of the proposed fundraiser or initiative for required approval by OHSU Foundation.

For more information or questions, please contact Lisa Nolen at 503-552-0681 or email nolenl@ohsu.edu
GENERAL GUIDELINES AND POLICIES

• OHSU Foundation must approve all community fundraising events and cause marketing campaigns and reserves the right to deny any request for a fundraising initiative that fails to comply with any municipal, county, state and/or federal law. Additionally, OHSU Foundation reserves the right to deny any event or initiative that does not appropriately reflect the mission and values of OHSU and the OHSU Foundation.

• OHSU or OHSU Foundation is unable to produce, manage or staff approved fundraising initiatives.

• OHSU Foundation must be notified in advance if another organization(s) will also benefit from your initiative or participate in raising funds.

• OHSU Foundation fundraising policy prohibits the use of telephone solicitations by a third party for contributions from the public.

• For confidentiality reasons, OHSU/OHSU Foundation cannot release donor or volunteer lists to an individual, company, group or organization. Also, OHSU does not sell goods or services from outside organizations.

• If alcohol is being served at your event, you are responsible for ensuring all necessary licenses and permits are obtained. OHSU Foundation will not take out liquor licenses for third-party events.
FINANCIAL POLICIES

• OHSU Foundation will not assume any legal or financial liability associated with your event, nor will we indemnify you or any party involved in your event for any damage, expense, or other costs arising from or in any manner related to your event. OHSU Foundation and all related entities are not liable for any injuries sustained by event volunteers or participants related to your event and cannot assume any type of liability for your event.

• In accordance with IRS regulations, the individual or organization conducting the fundraiser is responsible for disclosing to donors the exact dollar amount or percentage of their gift which will benefit the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute.

• If applicable, you will be responsible for obtaining your own liability insurance to cover the event. OHSU Foundation and OHSU will not insure your event and require that you obtain all insurance, including premise liability and worker’s compensation. You agree to indemnify and hold OHSU Foundation & OHSU and its employees, agents and representatives harmless from and against any and all claims, demands, liabilities, expenses, losses, damage, and attorneys’ fees arising from or in connection with the event.

• You are responsible for obtaining all permits and licenses—especially those for raffles or games of chance. Oregon law requires special licensing to conduct a raffle. If you or your organization would like to conduct a raffle, individuals and/or organizations must obtain a raffle license from the Oregon Department of Justice: http://www.doj.state.or.us/charigroup/gaming_oregon.shtml

• You agree that you will not use OHSU Foundation’s tax exemption in any manner or as part of the promotion of your event, nor will you represent to the public that you enjoy any tax-exempt rights or privileges as a result of your role in the event (unless you have separate tax-exempt status), nor will you state that any portion of the purchase price for any goods or services at the event is tax deductible for charitable purposes.

• Silent auction items should each be valued at the fair market value. This value must be listed on the bid sheet at the auction table or included in any printed list of auction items, including live auction item descriptions.
  ◦ Items valued at $5,000 or more require an appraisal by a qualified appraiser, per IRS guidelines.
  ◦ If an item is not valued, or valued as priceless, the final auction bid establishes the item’s fair market value, therefore no portion is tax deductible. Autographed items are deemed priceless.
  ◦ Fair market value of the item must be disclosed in order to provide gift credit. The charitable portion is that above the fair market value.
PROMOTIONAL POLICY

• Publicity may not suggest that the event/initiative is being sponsored, co-sponsored or produced by the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute, and must clearly state that the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute is the beneficiary.

• All publicity involving the OHSU/Knight Cancer Institute name must be approved by the OHSU Foundation and Knight Cancer Institute prior to production, distribution and/or release. We request lead time of two working days to review and approve references to the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute in general printed materials, and lead time of five working days to review and approve proposed references to the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute in press releases.

• Press releases, public service announcements, advertisements, printed materials (posters, brochures, invitations, etc.) are the responsibility of the individual/organization coordinating the initiative. OHSU and the OHSU Foundation cannot commit to promoting third-party fundraising initiatives through social media channels or other means.

• The OHSU Knight Cancer Institute logo may not be used in third-party news releases regarding fundraising campaigns in which the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute is the beneficiary. Limited exceptions may be considered on a case-by-case basis upon completion of fundraising campaigns.

• Requests to use any OHSU logo must be submitted at least two weeks in advance for consideration by the OHSU Foundation. The Foundation, in partnership with the Knight Cancer Institute, may allow limited use of the logo by third-party fundraisers if specified conditions are met. Key factors that will influence our decision on whether to grant requests:
  ° The organization’s fundraising initiative is primarily focused on increasing financial support for OHSU Knight Cancer Institute, not building business or brand awareness for the organization.
  ° The organization has an already established and well-regarded brand.
  ° OHSU has an existing relationship with the organization that will be enhanced through the fundraising initiative.
  ° Use of the OHSU Knight Cancer Institute logo in the promotional materials will provide a significant benefit to OHSU Knight Cancer Institute through association with the third-party organization.
EVENT STAFFING AND SUPPORT

OHSU/OHSU Foundation is unable to provide marketing or support staff (e.g. gift-processing, event organizing, recruitment of event sponsor/participants).

OHSU Foundation staff may help by providing:

- Information for distribution regarding research and care programs specific to the area your fundraiser is benefiting.
- Logoed give-away items when available.
- A letter of thanks (not a gift receipt unless the gift is directly made payable to the OHSU Foundation) to event donors.
- Recognition of funds raised in OHSU internal and external publications deemed appropriate by our staff.

- An OHSU campus or lab tour for event participants or committee organizers and a chance to meet with faculty leader(s) prior to or after the event.
- An OHSU/OHSU Foundation representative to participate in a check presentation at the event. Requests must be made 4 weeks in advance.
- An OHSU representative to set up a booth/table at the event to answer basic questions. Requests must be made 12 weeks in advance and fulfillment of request is subject to event size, focus and anticipated proceeds.
GIFT PROCESSING POLICY

• Event organizers should submit proceeds from their event within 30 days from its conclusion.

• If the third party is a 501(c)3 organization, all checks shall be made payable to, mailed to, processed by and receipted by the third party.

• If the third party is not a 501(c)3 organization and needs event revenue to pay for event expenses, all checks shall be made payable to, mailed to, and deposited into an event bank account by the third party. It shall be stated on all event materials that gifts to the event are not tax-deductible.

• Only individual checks payable to the OHSU Foundation and cash donations (equal to or greater than $5.00) clearly labeled with the donor’s information will be provided with a tax deductible receipt in accordance with IRS and state tax regulations.

• In-kind donations to community events and initiatives are not tax deductible. OHSU Foundation can only provide receipts for a donation directly made payable to the OHSU Foundation.

• Send donations to: OHSU Foundation, MS 45, PO 4000, Portland, OR 97208.
