

Black American Heritage Celebration

Lunch Time Speakers

Monday, Feb. 22, 12-1 p.m., Mac Hall 1116

Haiti: Current Conditions and Historical Background, Nick Gideonse, M.D., assistant professor of OHSU Family Medicine, medical director and associate residency director, OHSU Richmond Family Health Center

Tuesday, Feb. 23, 12-1 p.m., Mac Hall 1116

Panel Discussion: The Importance of Afrocentric Approach to Mental Health for Africans/Black and African Americans

Danette C. Burchill, L.C.S.W., clinical director, Avel Gordly Center for Healing, OHSU

Carol R. Chism, L.C.S.W., clinical social worker, Avel Gordly Center for Healing, OHSU

Andre Pruitt, L.C.S.W., clinical supervisor, Avel Gordly Center for Healing, OHSU

Wednesday, Feb. 24, 12-1 p.m., Mac Hall 1116

Panel Discussion: Saving Women's and Babies' Lives in Kenya,

Maggie Alexander, N.D., M.S., C.N.M., president, Safe Passage to Motherhood, instructor, Nurse-Midwifery, OHSU

Jezka Dilazou, B.S., board member, Ray of Hope Foundation, owner and operator, Daligrace

Grace Kuto, B.A., co-founder and president, Harambee Center, administrative assistant, School of Dentistry, OHSU

Thursday, Feb. 25, 12-1 p.m., Mac Hall 2201

Race and Racism in America through the Lens of an African Refugee, Kayse Jama, executive director, Center for Intercultural Organizing

Friday, Feb. 26, 12-1 p.m., Mac Hall 2201

The Legacy of African Midwifery in the 21st Century, Shafia M. Monroe, C.M., C.C.E., president and founder, International Center of Traditional Childbearing

Community Booth Exhibit

Tuesday, Feb. 23, 11 a.m.-2 p.m., 9th Floor Kohler Café (KPV Summit Espresso) Lounge

African Partnership for Health

The International Center for Traditional Childbearing

The Avel Gordly Center for Healing

The Ray of Hope Foundation

The Center for Intercultural Organizing

The Safe Passage to Motherhood

The Harambee Center

Uniting to Understand Racism

The Intercultural Communication Institute

Poster Exhibit

Celebrating African American Contributions in Science, Medicine and Civic Leadership

Monday-Sunday, Feb. 22-28, 9th Floor Hatfield Research Center Hallway

Culinary Exploration

Mac Hall Café and Bistro, Mon.-Fri., Feb. 22-26

Featuring Continental African cuisine. Lunch available from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Marquam Café at the 3rd floor, Mon.-Sun., Feb. 22-28

Featuring African American-style soul food. Open 24 hours every day.

Multnomah Pavilion Café, Thu.-Fri., Feb. 25-26

Featuring African American-style soul food. Lunch available from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

