Asian American and Pacific Islander Heritage Celebration

Lecture Series
Monday, May 17, 12–1 p.m., Mackenzie Hall, room 1116
Faces of the uninsured Asian Americans
Holden Leung, M.S.W., executive director, Asian Health and Service Center

Tuesday, May 18, 12–1 p.m., Old Library Auditorium
Understanding Asian Americans as patients and colleagues
Lillian A. Tsai, president, TsaiComms, LLC

Wednesday, May 19, 12–1 p.m., OHSU Hospital, room 8B60
Providing mental health care to Asian immigrants and refugees in Oregon
Paul Leung, M.D., associate professor and medical director, psychiatry; director, Intercultural Psychiatric Program, OHSU
This session is co-sponsored by Center for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs and is a part of the Cultural Competency Lecture Series.

Friday, May 21, 12–1 p.m., Mackenzie Hall, room 1162
Southeast Asian refugee health barriers and their effects on successful integration
Lee Po Cha, M.B.A., associate director of programs, Immigrant and Refugee Community Organization

Community Organization Exhibit
Tuesday, May 18, 11 a.m.–2 p.m., Mackenzie Hall Courtyard
In conjunction with the OHSU Farmer’s Market
(Community Organization Exhibit will move to Old Library Lobby in rain)

Poster Exhibit
Hungry planet: What the world eats – Focus on Asia
Monday, May 17 – Sunday, May 23, Hatfield Research Center 9th floor Hallway

Culinary Exploration
Mac Hall Café and Bistro, Mon. – Fri., May 17 – 21
11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Marquam Café at the 3rd floor, Mon. – Sun., May 17 – 23
Open 24 hours every day

Mac Hall’s All Local BBQ at OHSU Farmer’s Market, Tue., May 18
11:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.