

OHSU Celebrates

National Disability Employment Awareness Month

October 1-31, 2010

Lecture: Disability, Diversity and Inclusion

---

Thursday, October 21, 12-1 p.m.

OHSU Hospital, room 8B60

Steve Hanamura, M.A., president, Hanamura Consulting, Inc.

Participants will explore the distinction between disability, diversity, inclusion and the connection to the bottom line. Topics to be discussed include:

- How we can move beyond compliance to create breakthroughs in working with people with disabilities
- The role of management and leadership in insuring that people with disabilities can be successful on the job
- The role of the employee with a disability in working collaboratively with colleagues
- How to merge disability, diversity and inclusion into a successful model for increased productivity

Steve Hanamura brings over 30 years of experience to the consulting, training and speaking profession. Hanamura Consulting serves businesses, non-profit organizations, government agencies and academic institutions throughout the country. A partial listing includes Nike, American Airlines, ESPN, Safeway, IBM, Kaiser Permanente, March of Dimes, NASA, Wright Patterson Air Force Base, Pace University, the Omaha School District and the Beaverton School District.

Hanamura has authored two books, In Search of Vision (2000) and I Can See Clearly (2005); written many journal articles and has been recognized as one of forty diversity pioneers in Profiles in Diversity Journal (2007). Hanamura received his master's degree from the University of Oregon and his bachelor's degree from Linfield College.
