

Jewish American Heritage Celebration Events

March 29 - April 4, 2010

(events presented throughout April)

Poster Exhibit

The History of Jewish Americans in Oregon

Monday, March 29 - Friday, April 9: Hatfield Research Center Ninth Floor Hallway

Lunchtime Speakers

The Jews of Oregon: History and contributions

Presented by Judith Margles, M.A., director, Oregon Jewish Museum

Monday, March 29, noon - 1 p.m.: Mackenzie Hall room 1116

Is it kosher? What you need to know when caring for Jewish patients

Presented by Shani Fox, N.D., naturopathic physician, and Diane N. Solomon, M.S.N., C.N.M., P.M.H.N.P., psychiatric nurse practitioner

Monday, April 12, noon - 1 p.m.: Mackenzie Hall room 1116

Delivering culturally appropriate healthcare to the Jewish community

Presented by Elizabeth Steiner, M.D., director, Breast Health Education Program, OHSU Knight Cancer Institute and associate professor, OHSU Family Medicine

Wednesday, April 21, noon - 1 p.m.: OHSU Hospital 8B60

A part of the Cultural Competency Lecture Series, sponsored by the Center for Diversity and Multicultural Affairs

Culinary Exploration

Mac Hall Café and Bistro

Mon. - Fri., March 29 - April 2

Breakfast served from 7 to 10 a.m.; lunch served from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. Featuring Jewish American cuisine; Matzah available daily.

Marquam Café at the 3rd floor

Mon. - Sun., March 29 - April 4

Food served 24 hours per day. Featuring Jewish American cuisine; Matzah available daily.

The culinary exploration is not intended to be Passover celebration menu; rather, it is an opportunity to introduce OHSU to a wide selection of dishes from the Jewish culture.

OHSU does not endorse or advance any one religion, but provides wide range of education to ensure continued cultural sensitivity among OHSU community. The planning committee encourages you to attend the educational events provided during this week and throughout April.

