Childbirth and Early Parenting Education Courses:
Insurance Claims and Billing Information

Many of the courses offered through the Early Parenting and Childbirth Education program at the OHSU Center for Women’s Health are covered by medical insurance. Reimbursement depends entirely on the participant’s insurance plan guidelines. The OHSU Center for Women’s Health does not offer any guarantee of coverage.

Medicaid/Oregon Health Plan
Participants using Medicaid and/or Oregon Health Plan should contact Childbirth Education directly at birthing@ohsu.edu or 503-418-1967 to arrange for registration.

Private Insurance
- Childbirth Education/OHSU does not bill insurance or reimburse participants directly.
- If you would like to use your health insurance benefits, we recommend that you prepay the course fees and then submit a claim for reimbursement to your insurance company. The rate or amount of reimbursement is solely based on the specifications of your insurance coverage.
- Visit the Center for Women’s Health website to register for classes.
- After registration, participants will immediately receive a receipt via email to the email address provided during registration. This is the receipt that should be submitted to your insurance company as proof of payment.
- Please obtain a verification of attendance from your instructor after the class is completed as required by your insurance company.

Useful private insurance claim information:
- Insurance claims often require proof of payment. Proof of payment is the receipt that was sent via email to the email address provided during online registration.
- The Tax ID number of Early Parenting and Childbirth Education is 93-1176109
- The CPT Code for childbirth education classes is 99078
- If the insurance claim form requires an ICD-9 or ICD-10 code please refer to the provider/patient billing offices to obtain the appropriate ICD-9 or ICD-10 code.*

*Common ICD-9/10 codes recommended for pregnancy are as follows:
- V22.0- used when supervision of first pregnancy of the patient is documented in the OB charts
- V22.1- used when the supervision is for other than the first pregnancy (second, third, etc. pregnancy)
- V23.89- used when the pregnancy is classified as other high-risk pregnancy
  Please check with your provider to determine which code is appropriate.

Visit the Center for Women’s Health website for additional class policies.
