

DAVE NEWELL, DAVID SIGNH, JAKE MCNABB, NIKKI EVANS & SEAN HURLEY — DELIVERY & FLEET SERVICES

Recently, the OHSU All-Hill Student Council hosted the 7th Annual Student Recognition and Awards Ceremony at the Student Center to honor students and faculty members who are dedicated to volunteerism and serving the Portland, Oregon and global communities. The ceremony was being conducted on Thursday, May 17th in the Student Center gymnasium, and all logistical pieces were in place (or so we thought). The flowers had been delivered, the podium and projector were set, the certificates had been printed and the awards had been framed, the caterers were waiting with food and beverage, and the musicians were in place....but the tables and chairs to seat 250 people were nowhere to be found. The Student Center staff contacted Delivery and Dispatch Services, and the department had no confirmed order for the tables and chairs. Apparently, the ball had somehow been dropped by the Ceremony planning committee, and the order had never actually been confirmed. Without hesitation, Nikki (Administrative Assistant/Fleet Services) arranged for the delivery of 25 tables and 200 chairs to the Student Center. It was 4:00 pm, and all of the Fleet Services staff had left campus for the day. However, this didn't faze Jane; she was able to arrange for four Logistics supervisors to make the delivery and set up the venue. These individuals included: Sean Hurley, Jake McNabb, David Newell, and David Singh. By 5:05 pm, these individuals, who were dressed in their professional clothes including shirt and tie, had set up all the necessary tables and chairs to seat the 250 guests, who were arriving at 5:30 pm. I was truly impressed by all of these individuals' positive attitudes and their willingness to go the extra mile to make our ceremony a success! We greatly appreciated all of their efforts, and would like to nominate these five individuals for a Golden ROSE Award!
