Oregon Rural Scholars Program

The ORSP is offered to OHSU School of Medicine PGY-2 students with a particular interest in rural practice. Students interested in practicing rural family medicine, general pediatrics, general IM, psychiatry, or general surgery are encouraged to apply. Students receive additional didactic and course work, mentoring and spend three rotations (rural health, family medicine, and one elective) in a rural practice block during third year.

Other features of the program include:

- Can satisfy SOM Core, longitudinal and rural requirements
- ORSO kick-off retreat in Klamath Falls
- Opportunity to apply for Oregon FIRST pre-match program with Klamath Falls Residency Program.
- Eligibility for loan forgiveness

Important dates for the next application cycle open to Class of 2018

June 1st, 2017: Applications open (check back to this website)

June 15th: Applications due

June 30th: Announce 2018 applicants into program

July 31st: Final placements complete.

For more information, contact course faculty:

Robyn Liu, MD/MPH, ORSP Director, liur@ohsu.edu

Ryan Palmer, Ed.D., ORSP Education Director, palmerry@ohsu.edu