Connecting, Involvement, Community Health. The 2016 annual ORPRN Newsletter highlights our commitment to these values, as you will find in the following articles.

- The linkages between Primary Care Practices and community resources in ORPRN Director LJ Fagnan, MD’s article The Walls Fall Down
- Healthy Hearts Northwest’s Key Driver Diagram with Caitlin Dickinson, MPH and Beth Sommers, MPH
- Learn about the Strong and Early Outcomes of the Behavioral Health Home Model experienced by BHLC’s Central City Concern
- The innovative LTC Hotline and Community Resource projects begun by our Comprehensive Primary Care Initiative participant Northwest Primary Care
- Follow Maggie McLain McDonnell, MPH’s interview with Juli Gregory, RN, Education Director and Director of Connexions at Good Shepherd Medical Center to learn how to Connect Community Members and Primary Care Providers with Resources

ORPRN is proud of its role in improving the health of Oregonians.
