Course Outcomes

Upon successful completion of this course, students will demonstrate improved capabilities in:

1. Meaningful reflection on personal emotions, strengths, weaknesses, drives, values and goals and recognition of how they impact others.
2. Skillful redirection of disruptive emotions and impulses, and effective adaptation to changing circumstances.
3. Development and nurturance of personal and professional relationships from a strength-based, appreciative perspective that identifies and enlists stakeholders.
4. Enhancement of personal communication skillset to include consideration of context, purpose and audience and demonstration of empathetic listening.

Attendance Requirements

Attendance at the face-to-face sessions is required as is participation in the online component of the course. Students are expected to be present and participate in discussions in a professional and respectful manner. Failure to attend or participate in class may adversely affect your final grade. See the gradebook for details.

Grading Policy

Grades are based on the following criteria:

A	95-100%	B-	80-82%	D+	67-69%
A-	90-94%	C+	77-79%	D	63-67%
B+	87-89%	C	73-76%	D-	60-62%
B	83-86%	C-	70-72%	F	Below 60%

Grades will be based on scores from Forum posts and participation, two problem analyses, and participation in the in-person class meetings. The point breakdown is as follows:

- 40% - Discussion forum
- 20% - Face-to-face session participation
- 20% - (4) Assignments
- 20% - Final paper

Graduate credit will be granted for a class grade of C or better, however a class grade below B is cause for serious concern.

Grades are due to the Registrar's Office one week after the end of the term. Students will find official grades posted in ISIS within two weeks of the completion of the term. If at this time you do not see your grades in ISIS, please contact the Division at 503-346-0375.

Evaluation of Work

You will have forum questions and/or assignments each week for online response. The effectiveness of the class relies on active participation in online discussions and the two face-to-face class sessions. To pass this class you are required to attend both face-to-face sessions. Course grade is based on your participation, both on-line and in-person, responses to the on-line assignments, and the final paper.

To earn full participation points in the forums, a good guideline is to post at least 1 substantive contribution to further an ongoing discussion thread on 2 out of 7 days each week (i.e. 2 substantive posts and active in the "classroom" on at least 3 days). A posting that states "I agree" or something similar is not considered a substantive post.

Your written assignments will be graded based on how well you have applied the course material and expressed yourself clearly and insightfully. Assignments are uploaded using the Submissions tool in Sakai, using .doc, .docx, or .rtf files so that you can see comments using Track Changes.

Assignments are due 11:55pm on dates noted within Sakai.

Copyright Information

Every reasonable effort has been made to protect the copyright requirements of materials used in this course. Class participants are warned not to copy, audio, or videotape in violation of copyright laws. Journal articles will be kept on reserve at the library or online for student access. Copyright law does allow for making one personal copy of each article from the original article. This limit also applies to electronic sources.

To comply with the fair use doctrine of the US copyright law, Sakai course sites close three weeks after grades are posted with the Registrar. Please be sure to download all course material you wish to keep before this time.

Syllabus Changes & Retention

This syllabus is not to be considered a contract between the student and the School of Medicine. It is recognized that changes may be made as the need arises. Students are responsible for keeping a copy of the course syllabus for their records. HOWEVER PLEASE NOTE: the course outline posted on Sakai will have the most up to date information.

Student Access

Our program is committed to all students achieving their potential. If you have a disability or think you may have a disability (physical, learning, hearing, vision, psychological) which may need a reasonable accommodation please contact Student Access at (503) 494-0082 or e-mail at studentaccess@ohsu.edu to discuss your needs.

You can also find more information here. Because accommodations can take time to implement, it is important to have this discussion as soon as possible. All information regarding a student's disability is kept in accordance with relevant state and federal laws.

Inclement Weather Policy

When the weather forecaster is calling for ice or snow, call the OHSU Alert Line, 503 494-9021, for information regarding weather conditions that may affect operations at OHSU. If classes are canceled or delayed, residents and students who have patient care responsibilities must meet those obligations. See this website for details. For more information specific to the Division, please visit our website.

Academic Honesty

Course participants are expected to maintain academic honesty in their course work. Participants should refrain from seeking past published solutions to any assignments. Literature and resources (including Internet resources) employed in fulfilling assignments must be cited. More information can be found online here.

In an effort to uphold the principles and practice of academic honesty, faculty members at OHSU may use originality checking systems such as Turnitin to compare a student's submitted work against multiple sources. More information about Turnitin and plagiarism can be found online through OHSU's Teaching & Learning Center.

Use of Sakai

This course will have an online component, which can be accessed through Sakai, OHSU's online course management system. For any technical questions or if you need help logging in, please contact the Sakai Help Desk.
