Decision Tree: What kind of Visitor or Volunteer am I?

Contact your Hosting Site about appropriate classifications

Do you meet the definition of “unescorted visitor” per OHSU Visitor Policy No. 07-15-010?

Yes

Are you receiving compensation for your visit?

No

Are you receiving academic credit [from your home institution] for your time here?

Yes

You are a Non-OHSU Student Intern

No

Which description most closely matches your situation?

Visiting Scholar:
Established academic and/or research professionals who are here to learn from OHSU personnel, collaborate on work, or use OHSU specialized equipment in an academic and non-research capacity. These individuals are not entitled to employment. Additionally these individuals may be compensated from an outside source, or by OHSU via stipend or honorarium in accordance with OHSU policy.

Experiential Visitor:
Individuals who voluntarily participate in various activities to gain knowledge, skills, and abilities to propel them towards their future professional or educational goals. These individuals are compensated from an outside source or through OHSU Accounts Payable. Additionally, these individuals may or may not be entitled to employment/academic enrollment.

Volunteer:
Individuals who donate their time and service without compensation in an selfless effort to fulfill OHSU's mission. Particular skills sets are not typically required.

Skilled Volunteer:
Individuals who are volunteering to provide OHSU with their professional expertise or skills on a very limited basis without compensation in a selfless effort to fulfill OHSU's mission. Additionally, these individuals do not have entitlement to future employment.

No

Are you receiving academic credit [from your home institution] for your time?

Yes

Which description most closely matches your situation?