Research

“The research mission is woven into the fabric of every part of OHSU, from the most basic research bench to the educational teams to the clinic. We are all constantly asking ourselves: is there a better way to ease suffering and cure disease? This sense of striving and curiosity is nurtured in every OHSU employee, creating a strong sense of teamwork and collaboration in the research enterprise.”

~ Dan Marks, M.D., Ph.D., Senior Associate Dean for Research

OHSU Practice Plan

“The members of our OHSU practice plan – the largest organized clinical practice in Oregon – are essential to all aspects of clinical care at OHSU and with our partners. Our clinicians work together to provide excellent primary and specialty care while simultaneously helping create a new paradigm for health within today’s transformed delivery system.”

~ Anthony Masciotra, M.B.A., C.P.A., Senior Associate Dean for Clinical Practice
