Mandatory training required

Everyone who works, learns or volunteers at OHSU must complete Information Privacy and Security Essentials training, as required to comply with OHSU's resolution agreement with the Department of Health and Human Services' Office for Civil Rights. The April 9 deadline has passed, so please make every effort to complete the training as soon as possible.

Haven't completed the training yet?

Complete it online

The course is hosted online in OHSU's learning management system, Compass.

- For Healthcare Volunteer Services: Log in at https://ohsu.csod.com
- For Office of Visitors & Volunteers: Log in at https://o2.ohsu.edu/compass

After logging in, you will find a link to the course under "My Assigned Training" on your homepage. Please disable your browser's popup blocker, or remember to allow popups when prompted.

Complete it in-person

If you do not have access to a computer with an internet connection, in-person training is available at OHSU as follows:

- Wednesday, April 24 from 9:30–10:30 a.m. in OHSU Hospital Room 8B60
- Wednesday, April 24 from 5–6 p.m. in OHSU Hospital Room 8B60

If you have questions

Please contact your hosting volunteer program if you have questions:

- Healthcare Volunteer Services: volunteer@ohsu.edu or 503-418-5376
- Office of Visitors & Volunteers: OVV@ohsu.edu or 503-418-0799

Thank you in advance for completing the Information Privacy and Security Essentials course.

And, thank you for volunteering at OHSU.
