

All-City Palliative Care

A Positive Approach to Improving Communication

DATE: FRIDAY, MARCH 1, 2019

TIME: 8:00 - 9:00 AM

SPEAKER: KATIE STOWERS, D.O.

LOCATION: ADVENTIST HEALTH; 10123 SE MARKET ST;
AMPHITHEATRE C, LOWER LEVEL

SUMMARY

This lecture will explore factors that contribute to the individual as a communicator. Dr. Stowers will also describe positive teaching methods that can facilitate development of effective communication skills.

OUR SPEAKER

Katie Stowers, D.O.

Katie Stowers, D.O.

Dr. Stowers is a palliative medicine physician and assistant professor of medicine at Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU) and the Portland VA Health Care System. Dr. Stowers attended Nova Southeastern University College of Osteopathic Medicine, The Ohio State University Internal Medicine Residency, and The Ohio State University Hospice and Palliative Medicine Fellowship. Dr. Stowers is the program director for the OHSU hospice and palliative medicine fellowship program. Dr. Stowers specializes in teaching serious illness communication skills, and is a faculty leader in VitalTalk, a nationally recognized organization teaching clinicians to communicate compassionately with seriously ill individuals.

A joint venture by:

Adventist Health
Kaiser Permanente
Legacy Health
PeaceHealth Vancouver
Portland VA Medical Center
Providence Health & Services
OHSU Center for Ethics in Health Care
Oregon Hospice & Palliative Care Association

Visitor's Map

Welcome to Adventist Medical Center

