26th Annual Internal Medicine Review

Exhibit Days: Thursday, April 11th and Friday, April 12th, 2019
The Sentinel Hotel – Portland OR

To: Supporters of OHSU CME Programs

We invite your company's participation as an exhibitor at the 26th Annual Internal Medicine Review, sponsored by the Department of Medicine and the Division of Continuing Professional Development (formerly CME) of the OHSU School of Medicine. We anticipate 180-200 internists and other primary care practitioners from the western United States at this meeting; traditionally, we have 8-10 exhibitors.

Among the plenary topics to be covered this year are supplements, menopause, insomnia, ortho exams and many more.

Exhibits must be designed to enhance the learning experience of registrants. The exhibit fee is $1,000 for one day or $1,800 for both. You may set up your table between 6:45 – 7:15 a.m. Exhibit hours for this conference are 7:15 a.m. – 3:30 p.m. in the Renaissance Room on the 3rd floor of the hotel. The conference will be in the ballroom, also on the third floor.

Please complete this Intent to Exhibit form at your earliest convenience.
