

Climate and Culture Tools: SHIP

SHIP is an evidence-based workplace training program for supervisors and their teams. The training was designed to promote employee health, safety, work-life balance, and team effectiveness.

Oregon Institute of
Occupational Health Sciences

Climate and Culture Tools: PUSH

The Start the Conversation activities were developed to educate young workers about work and non-work factors (safety in the workplace, professional communication and health) that can impact safety on and off the job. long.

Oregon Institute of
Occupational Health Sciences

Climate and Culture Tools: Scorecards

The screenshot shows the Oregon Institute of Occupational Health Sciences website. The main heading is "Total Worker Health® & Well-being". Below this, there is a table of scorecards. The table has columns for "Date Added", "Resource", and "Source".

Date Added	Resource	Source
May 2016	Dimensions of Corporate Integration (PDF) http://centerforworkhealth.sph.harvard.edu/sites/default/files/totalwell_guidefinal/Dimensions%20of%20Integration%20for%20websites-10.pdf	(Harvard School of Public Health)
Mar 2016	CDC NHWP Health and Safety Climate Survey (INPUTSTM) (PDF) http://www.cdc.gov/nationalhealthyworksite	(CDC)

Oregon Institute of
Occupational Health Sciences

Climate and Culture Tools: CPWR

- Strengthening Jobsite Safety Climate by Using and Improving Leading Indicators – The Center for Construction Research and Training
<http://www.cpwr.com/safety-culture/strengthening-jobsite-safety-climate>

