

Summary of capstone outline:

Introduction, research question, background, prior research on the topic, research methods, description of subjects (if there are any) in order to determine what the IRB requirements will be.