1. Generally

   OHSU shall grant an Excused Military Absence to all students who are a Member of the Military, a member of the commissions corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, or a member of the Public Health Service of the United States Department of Health and Human Services detailed by proper authority for duty with the Army or Navy of the United States, and who are ordered to federal or state active duty. Students seeking an Excused Military Absence must notify OHSU per the requirements established in OHSU Policy 02-70-030, Voluntary Leave of Absence, Excused Military Absence and Withdrawal.

2. Definitions

   For the purposes of this policy, the following definitions shall apply:

   A. Member of the Military. A person who is a member of the Oregon National Guard or the National Guard of any other state or territory; or the active duty reserves of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps or Coast Guard of the United States.

   B. Excused Military Absence. A type of leave of absence initiated by the student and occurs when they have been ordered to federal or state active duty service as a Member of the Military, a member of the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, or a member of the Public Health Service of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. An Excused Military Absence of 30 consecutive days or fewer shall be granted for short term active duty service or receiving medical treatment for an injury sustained on active duty.

3. Excused Military Absence of 30 or Fewer Days for Active Duty Service or Related Medical Treatment

   If a student is ordered to active duty for 30 or fewer consecutive days and misses a course session, assignment, examination or other course work due to serving on Active Duty or receiving medical treatment for an injury sustained on Active Duty:

   A. The student may complete any missed course assignment, exam or other course work after the student has returned from active duty or medical treatment and has been provided a reasonable amount of time to complete the assignment or other course work or prepare for and take the exam; or

B. The faculty of record may award a letter grade or grade of pass without requiring the student to complete the missed assignment, exam or other course work if the faculty of record determines the student has completed sufficient work and demonstrated sufficient progress toward meeting course requirements to justify the student’s grade without completion of the missed assignment, exam or other course work.

C. The student’s grade may not be adversely impacted due to the late completion of an assignment, exam or other course work if the assignment, exam or other course work is completed in accordance with OHSU Policy 02-70-015, Timely Release of Grades.

D. Instructional time the student misses due to active duty service or medical treatment shall be counted as an Excused Military Absence and may not adversely impact the student’s grade for the course or rank in the student’s class.

4. Excused Military Absence of 30 days or More

A student is ordered to active duty service for more than 30 consecutive days has the following rights:

A. With regard to a course in which the student is enrolled and for which the student has paid tuition and fees the student may:

1) Withdraw from the course or term enrollment. If the student withdraws from a course or term enrollment, OHSU may not give the student academic credit for the course(s) from which the student withdraws. OHSU may not award a failing grade, incomplete grade, alter the GPA or document a negative annotation on the student record; or

2) Receive a grade of Incomplete and upon release from active duty and reenrollment at OHSU, the student must complete the required coursework in accordance with the requirements of OHSU Policy 02-70-015, Timely Release of Grades; or

3) Continue and complete courses for full credit, if applicable. Instructional time the student misses due to active duty services shall be counted as an Excused Military Absence and may not adversely impact the student’s grade for the course or rank in the student’s class. The student may not be automatically excused by the faculty of record from completing coursework during the period the student serves on active duty. A letter grade or a grade of pass may be awarded only if, in the opinion of the faculty of record, the student completes sufficient coursework and demonstrates sufficient progress towards meeting course requirements to justify the grade.

B. Students ordered to active duty may request to receive a credit for the amount of tuition and fees paid by the student for a course from which the student withdraws. The credit is prorated based on the number of weeks remaining in the term or course when the student withdraws and shall be applied to the student account as a credit toward tuition and fees.

C. Students who have been awarded scholarships or grants by OHSU before being ordered to active duty shall continue to receive the scholarship or grant upon reenrollment in the academic program. Students receiving outside scholarships and grants must verify continued funding support with the awarding entity or training grant.

D. If a student elects to withdraw from OHSU, the student has the right to be readmitted and reenroll at OHSU within one year after release from active duty without a requirement of redetermination of admissions eligibility.
