

Diversity Mentorship Dinner:

Diversity Tax: What is it and how do we alleviate it?

The mission of the Diversity Mentorship Dinner Series is to provide medical students and resident physicians from diverse backgrounds easy access to professional and personal mentorship with faculty and other residents.

The theme of this dinner will be “Diversity Tax: What is it and how do we alleviate it?” Diversity tax, also known as minority tax, is defined as “the tax of extra responsibilities and array of additional duties, expectations and challenges placed on minority personnel in the name of efforts to achieve diversity.”
