WELCOME

OHSU's Center for Diversity and Inclusion created this guide as part of our warm welcome to everyone within OHSU's diverse community of students, staff and faculty.

We hope you'll use it to build relationships, connect with new people, organizations and networks, and explore the places that make the Portland-area and Oregon special.

If you're new to Portland or the OHSU community, the guide will help you get your bearings, connect with a diverse array of resources, and discover the many services and opportunities available throughout the area. If you're already familiar with Portland or OHSU, chances are you'll discover new places to visit, networks to link to and services to meet your needs.

We invite you to visit the Center for Diversity and Inclusion and take advantage of the many resources we offer.

Welcome to the OHSU community!

DIVERSITY AT OHSU

At OHSU, we embrace the full spectrum of diversity, including age, color, culture, disability, ethnicity, gender identity or expression, marital status, national origin, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and socioeconomic status. We respect and support diversity of thought, ideas and more.

COMMITMENT TO INCLUSION

To fully leverage the richness of our diversity at OHSU, we must create, maintain and promote a community of inclusion. Inclusion means we honor, respect, embrace and value the unique contributions and perspectives of all employees, patients, students, volunteers and our local and global communities. It also includes removing barriers to individual success.

CENTER FOR DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Oregon Health and Science University (OHSU) Center for Diversity and Inclusion leads and supports university-wide initiatives to create an environment of respect and inclusion for all people. At OHSU, we believe diversity means creating a community of inclusion. The Center for Diversity and Inclusion is dedicated to fostering partnerships to enhance OHSU's mission of healing, teaching, research and community services. Offering a range of resources and services, The Center for Diversity and Inclusion is committed to supporting an environment where students, staff and faculty from socially and economically disadvantaged and historically disadvantaged populations can thrive and maximize their potential for creativity, innovation, and educational excellence.

WHAT WE DO: PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Consultation

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion serves as a resource hub for the OHSU community on matters related to diversity and inclusion across campus. We help navigate policies, develop communication tools and materials, offer diversity best practices in teaching and learning, and connect you with community resources.

Cultural Competency Lecture and Events

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion brings diverse speakers who address a wide range of issues related to culture, race, gender, sexual orientation, social class and economic situation, and their congruence with health disparities and access to care.

Employee Resource Groups

An employee resource group (ERG) is an OHSU-sponsored, employee-managed group of staff, faculty and students who share a similar background. ERGs create opportunities for career development, social support and networking. Established groups include:

- Ability
- Asian Pacific Islander
- Black Employees
- International
- Latinos Unidos
- Middle Eastern
- Native American
- OHSU Pride (LGBTQ and allies)
- Veterans
- Women

Diversity Advisory Council

Comprised of staff, faculty and student representatives from all the university's mission areas, the Diversity Advisory Council (DAC) advises OHSU's leadership team on enhancing diversity, cultural competency and opportunity throughout the university.

Student Interest Groups

The Center for Diversity and Inclusion works closely with diverse student interest groups to provide mentoring, support, and funding

- Asian Pacific American Student Association
- Latino Medical Student Association
- Student National Medical Association
- Students for LGBTQ Health
- Students of Islam and Medicine Society
- OHSU Student Diversity Committee

Student Pipeline Programs

Summer Equity Research Internship

OHSU's Summer Equity Research Program offers a paid internship opportunity for undergraduate students to receive career mentoring and shadowing opportunities from OHSU faculty members during the summer.

Hands-On Research Experience

The Ted R. Lilley Cancer Continuing Umbrella of Research Education (CURE) Project targets high school students to provide hands-on research experience and science exposure to increase participation of historically underserved and disadvantaged students in biomedical research and health-related fields.

Women in Academic Medicine

The Women in Academic Medicine Committee addresses issues of concern to women faculty including career advancement, career satisfaction, participation by women on decision-making bodies at OHSU, parenting, among other issues.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

Focus on Racial Justice

The Coalition of Communities of Color (CCC) sponsors leadership development initiatives to expand the capacity of communities of color to network, self-organize, and create change toward greater social inclusion. This is achieved through six culturally-specific leadership development programs.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org

African-American Leadership Development Project Institute

ALDPI raises the visibility of the African community to educate policymakers and create change to more equitably distribute resources to serve the African communities of Oregon.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org/bridges-aldi

African American Leadership Academy

AALA addresses the cultural, personal, civic and professional needs of emerging African American leaders to develop their skills and commitment to making positive change in the Portland area community.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org/bridges-aala

Asian Pacific Islander Community Leadership Institute

API-CLI builds the leadership capacity of Asian Pacific Islander leaders, and brings together API communities for collaboration and partnerships that address racial and ethnic disparities.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org/bridges-api-cli

LEAD

LEAD develops the skills and relationships among Native American leaders through collaborative learning and expanding networks and ties to their communities.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org/bridges-lead

The Slavic Leadership Project

The Slavic Leadership Project develops and strengthens the leadership capacity of the Slavic community in Oregon to increase visibility and policy change for community-identified issues.

www.coalitioncommunitiescolor.org/bridges-sla-ldp

Unid@s for Oregon

Unid@s for Oregon builds relationships and trust among Latino leaders and organizations through a cohesive leadership framework that is cross-regional, cross-sector, and inter-ethnic.

Native of America Event Neerchokikoo Powwow

The event begins with a traditional ground blessing; later, there will be an honoring for the Northwest Area Foundation which helped to make the purchase of the building possible. The powwow will also include a dinner for the public and an honoring of youth and elders in the Native community, Native American dancing, drumming and other opportunities to experience Native culture.
