

PERIODONTICS

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Graduates of the Program will meet the CODA Standards for Advanced Specialty Programs in Periodontics in patient pain and anxiety management.
2. Graduates of the Program will be able to apply foundational knowledge in the biomedical sciences and periodontology to establish a periodontal diagnosis, prognosis, and treatment plan.
3. Graduates of the Program will understand that they have received a comprehensive education that has prepared them to enter the field of Periodontics and pursue life-long learning.
4. Students will participate as active members of professional periodontal organizations.
5. Students participate in teaching activities during their educational program with honesty and integrity.
6. Program graduates will be able to conduct research.
7. Graduates of the Program will be prepared to seek and successfully achieve status as Diplomats of the American Board of Periodontology
8. Program graduates will demonstrate active listening, oral and written communication skills
9. Graduates of the Program will demonstrate collaborative care with colleagues to optimize patient outcomes.
10. Students will provide periodontal therapy for a diverse population of patients during their educational program
11. The Program will demonstrate that patients receive quality care.
12. Graduates of the Program will demonstrate a range of experiences in the full scope of comprehensive periodontal therapy to a patient population with diverse needs.